Red Poland's Workers Stage Riot In Poznan

Quelled By Tanks And Troops

BERLIN (AP) — Workers in the Red Poland's big industrial city of Poznan stormed government buildings and Communist headquarters Thursday in riots against living conditions. A number were killed.

Warsaw radio reported Thursday night the uprising had been put down by tanks and troops.

It said an undisclosed number of Poles had died in what the broadcast called "a well-organized revolt."

Premier Joseph Cyrankiewicz and other government party leaders of Communist Poland hurried to the city, site of an international trade fair, Radio Warsaw said.

It was Poland's biggest mass defiance of the Communist regime since Stalin died.

It began as a general strike in the factories. Most shops were closed. Streets were barricaded, traffic was paralyzed, and street cars and autos were overturned. A jail was set afire.

The broadcast charged that "enemies of the Polish People's Republic" had deliberately chosen the trade fair—attended from both sides of the Iron Curtain—"to exploit the economic difficulties and grievances in certain work establishments."

It called the rioters "a street mob incited by the imperialists and the reactionary underground movement."

The Warsaw government said "the full severity of the Polish law will be brought to bear on the guilty ones."

It was the biggest anti-Communist demonstration in the Soviet world since the East German uprising of June 17, 1953, when 200,000 workers revolted. A Soviet tank division put down that uprising.

The Poznan trade fair this year began on the third anniversary of the East German revolt.

May Be Three Unknown Soldiers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee Thursday approved legislation that could raise to three the number of unknown soldiers entombed in Arlington National Cemetery.

The bill, which now goes to the House, would provide for bringing the body of an unidentified serviceman of the Korean fighting to Arlington. Sponsors explained that the plan would be co-ordinated with an earlier one to accord similar honors to a World War II victim. The World War II unknown soldier was to have been entombed in 1951, but the Korean conflict caused postponement of the plan.

Army Research Chief Reports To Senate Air Power Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army calculates that "several hundred million" deaths would result from radioactivity if the United States ever launched a full-scale nuclear assault on the Communist world. It says casualties would extend to friendly areas outside the Red zone.

Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin, chief of Army Research and Development, gave the estimate to the Senate subcommittee investigating air power.

This and other testimony was released Thursday by the committee for publication.

Sen. Duff (R-Pa) asked Gavin: "If we got into a nuclear war and our Strategic Air Force made an asault in force against Russia with nuclear weapons so that the weapons exploded in a way where the prevailing winds would carry them southeast over Russia, what would be the effect in way of death?"

Gavin replied:

"Current planning estimates run on the order of several hundred million deaths that would be either way, depending on which way the wind blew.

"If the wind blew to the southeast they would be mostly in the U.S.S.R., although they would extend into the Japanese and perhaps down into the Philippine area.

"If the wind blew the other way they would extend well back into Western Europe."

The transcript of testimony did not show how the estimate of several hundred million deaths was arrived at. Reference books estimate the population of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, which includes both European and Asiatic Russia, at about 193 million. Red China may have a total of about 600 million.

Gavin said that if the attack included air burst of nuclear weapons th re would be increasing accumulation of the element strontium 90.

That element is produced in fission bomb explosions.

Everett Green Moves Closer To Electric Chair

WASHINGTON (AP) — Everett D. Green, who played a long-shot bet of death against a 5 to 20-year prison sentence, moved closer to the electric chair Thursday.

The U.S. Court of Appeals, splitting 6-3, upheld his conviction of first degree murder and his death sentence.

Green, now 65, originally was convicted of second degree murder in the arson-death of Betty Brown, 83-year-old spinster in a rooming house fire three years ago.

He appealed from his sentence of from 5 to 20 years imprisonment. In granting him a new trial, the appeals court warned that it might bring a death sentence.

It did.

Astronomer Can Fulfill His Dreams---If

CHICAGO (AP)—Amateur astronomer Selby Maxwell can fulfill his dream of looking at the planet Mars from "close up" — if he builds his planetarium to look like a store.

That is the gist of a ruling Thursday by Superior Judge Abraham L. Marovitz, and Maxwell said he would build such a structure.

"Close up" in this case is some 35 million miles—Mars' closest point to the Earth in 30 years. The planet will arrive at that point Sept. 7.

Maxwell, 62, of suburban Northlake, has been looking forward to the date for several years. But it seemed for a time like he wouldn't be able to go through with his plans to build a planetarium and 16-inch telescope through which to watch Mars.

The Midland Development Co., developers of Northlake, complained the planetarium would look like a "Lilliputian silo" smack in the suburb's business district, and would hinder further development.

The company sought an injunction to block Maxwell's plans.

$25,000 Damage Suit Is Settled For $12,000

CHICAGO (AP)—A $25,000 damage suit against a housewife and a Roman Catholic nun stemming from the auto death of a 59-year-old clerk was settled out of court today for $12,000.

Mrs. Mary Scarnavack, 52, charged negligence and carelessness in the death of her husband, Anthony. He was killed Aug. 10, 1955 in a Loop traffic accident.

The suit alleged that as Sister Mary Verona of Joliet stepped out of a car operated by Mrs. Walter Miller, 33, also of Joliet, she struck the accelerator sending the car out of control. It struck Scarnavack and injured three other pedestrians.

Judge Robert J. Dunne approved the settlement in Probate Court.

Mrs. Scarnavack's lawyer said a $25,000 damage suit against the General Motors Corp., its Pontiac Division and Nathan Gordon, a Joliet Pontiac dealer, will be continued. That suit charges the selector lever for the car's automatic transmission indicated neutral when it actually was in drive.

Chou Says Formosa Will Be Liberated By Peaceful Means

HONG KONG (AP)—Premier Chou En-lai reasserted Thursday night Red China's determination to take over Formosa and proposed direct negotiations with the Nationalist Chinese to arrange its "peaceful" transfer to the Communists.

He declared there were two ways for the Communist government to "liberate" the Nationalist stronghold off the Chinese mainland—"by war or by peaceful means." Red China, he said, seeks to "liberate Taiwan (Formosa) by peaceful means so far as it is possible."

"The dying gasp of the Taiwan authorities under the United States cannot last for long," Chou said in a speech to the National People's Congress in Peiping which was broadcast by Peiping radio. The Congress is Communist China's Parliament.

"On behalf of the government," the Premier said, "I formally declare we are willing to negotiate with the Taiwan authorities on specific steps and conditions for the peaceful liberation of Taiwan."

"Liberation" is the term Peiping always uses for the transfer of Formosa to its control. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists were certain to reject Chou's proposal, as they have all previous suggestions they give up the big island.

In his speech, Chou said Chiang could name the time and place for the talks. While firm in his calls for "liberation," the Premier did not sound as belligerent as he has in the past in expressing his government's determination to take over Formosa.

The Premier asserted that the U.S. forces backing Chiang "are by no means dependable forces."

Ike Tells Wilson To 'Lay It On The Line' In Reply To Attacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower called Secretary of Defense Wilson to his hospital room Thursday and told him to "lay it on the line" in reply to attacks on the administration defense program.

Reporting this quote, Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said it was the President's own.

Wilson will go before a Senate Armed Services subcommittee Friday and there he will face two of the sharpest administration critics in Congress, Sens. Symington (D-Mo) and Jackson (D-Wash).

Great Lakes Region Chilled With 50 Degrees

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A late June chill gripped the Great Lakes region Thursday.

Early afternoon temperatures were in the 50s in the northern Great Lakes region and in the low 60s near the shores of lakes Erie and Ontario.

Fraser, one of President Eisenhower's fishing spots in the Colorado mountains, had an early morning low of 32, the fourth morning in a row it has been the coldest place in the nation.

Storms that brought lightning, but little rain, started hundreds of fires over the dry Arizona and New Mexico forests. One forest ranger died fighting the flames.

Widely scattered showers occurred through portions of New England and the Mid - Atlantic states to the northern and central Appalachians and across the South from Arizona to Arkansas and in the Colorado mountains.

Afternoon readings were in the 80s along the East Coast, in the 70s over the Mid-Mississippi and Ohio valleys and through northern sections of the Rockies and Plateau region.

Attempt On Life Of American In Cyprus Again

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — An attempt was made Thursday on the life of another American civilian working in Cyprus. Unlike the bomb killing of U.S. Vice Consul William Boteler June 16, it failed.

British authorities of this Mediterranean island colony said a homemade bomb was planted in the gasoline tank of a car belonging to Louis La Bauve, 26, of New Orleans, La.

But La Bauve, a State Department employe at the U.S. radio relay station near here, escaped injury. He was inside his home on Nicosia's outskirts when the bomb exploded prematurely in his automobile parked outside.

Authorities said the crude bomb, a glass tube filled with gunpowder, probably had been planted by youths from a nearby schoolhouse sympathetic to EOKA.

EOKA designates the national organization of Cypriot fighters, an underground movement that seeks through shootings and bombings to induce the British to give Cyprus freedom to join Greece. EOKA was suspected of throwing two bombs that killed Boteler and wounded three other Americans in a Nicosia restaurant.

OFF-DUTY VIGIL PAYS OFF

JANESVILLE, Wis. (AP) — A nightly vigil by off-duty police officers in downtown alleys for two weeks paid off Wednesday night when Officer Kenneth Kingsley caught a 19-year-old youth smashing a rear window of a store.

Chief Jasper Webb said the youth, David J. Dowell, 19, admitted seven break-ins of stores and taverns in Janesville, one at Milton and another at Milton Junction in the last several weeks.

Even as Eisenhower and Wilson met, a Senate-House Conference Committee agreed to increase the administration's budget for the Air Force by almost a billion dollars. This move had been initiated by Senate Democrats who contended the Eisenhower plans for defense were inadequate in view of Russia's increasing air might.

Friday's testimony by Wilson will mark his first visit to the Capitol since he enraged many Democrats and irked some Republicans by using the word "phony" last week in a news conference discussion of the moves to give the Air Force more money than the administration asked.

The Armed Services subcommittee is headed by Symington, who used to be secretary of the Air Force and is a possibility for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The Symington-Jackson school of thought holds that America's air strength has been dangerously held down by what they call administration efforts to make a good financial showing.

Hagerty related that Wilson gave Eisenhower, who is sitting up in bed, an oral sum-up of what he planned to tell the senators Friday and the President approved it.

Hagerty was asked about the possibility of Wilson's resigning, and said he didn't think there was any discussion of this at all by the President or Wilson.

The whole conference, Hagerty said, "would indicate to me that the President of the United States has complete confidence in the secretary of defense."

Hagerty also said he thought there was no discussion of the "phony" episode which set off a storm in the Senate. Wilson has said he never intended to say there was anything phony about the way the Senate was handling the Air Force fund issue.

Redshaw Leaves Estate Valued At $85,000

HENNEPIN, Ill. (AP) — An inventory of the estate of John S. Redshaw, colorful Granville trader slain Sept. 26, 1955, places its value at $85,211.33.

Redshaw was reputed to be extremely wealthy and after the inventory was filed Thursday in Putnam County Court, State's Atty. Walter D. Boyle speculated the trader may have lost his fortune as well as his life.

"We know that Redshaw had a collection of unset diamonds of fabulous value, most of which are missing and would be extremely difficult to trace," Boyle said.

The inventory covered a wide range of jewelry, guns, art objects and thousands of miscellaneous items.

The only cash on hand was $229 found on the body of the 60-year-old Redshaw after he was shot three times in the vault of his shop.

Doyle said there had been no recent developments in the killing, but leads are still being traced.

Redshaw was shot and slugged apparently after he made a futile attempt to rout his assailants from the vault with an empty submachine gun.

The Step Pyramid of Egypt was built as a tomb for King Zoser.

Bell Phone To Issue 58 Million In New Stock

CHICAGO (AP)—Illinois Bell Telephone Co. said Thursday it will issue 58 million dollars in new stock upon approval from the Illinois Commerce Commission and the Indiana Public Service Commission.

The company will issue 580,531 shares of stock to stockholders of record on Aug. 31, 1956. Purchase rights expire Sept. 28. One share of stock will be issued for eight shares now held at a par value of $100 per share.

The stock, authorized by directors, is expected to help meet the company's short-term borrowings, which will approximate 60 million by September.

Senate Passes Bill Authorizing Army Building

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Thursday passed by voice vote a bill authorizing $2,113,158,000 of military construction projects in the year starting Sunday.

The measure, which would authorize 137 millions for new Army Nike guided missile sites and none for the Navy's rival Talos missile, now goes to a Senate-House conference committee. This group will seek to iron out differences between the House version and the Senate bill, which is 260 million dollars bigger.

Nearly a half billion dollars of the projects authorized by the Senate bill are military secrets, their nature veiled behind the word "classified."

The measure, provides for $24,439,000 for military construction projects in Illinois.

WANDERS AROUND IN SWIMMING TRUNKS

DETROIT (AP)—After wandering around in swimming trunks for 15 days, Cornelius Wright, 23, has 30 days in jail, an old suit of clothes and a sad story about some fickle friends.

"I came over here (to Belle Isle, a recreational park in the Detroit River) in a car with some friends," Wright told police.

"I changed to swimming trunks and went for a swim," he said. "When I came back, car, friends and clothes were gone. I had no money so I stayed on Belle Isle."

After 15 days of this, Wright was arrested, gave police no permanent address and listed his occupation as beachcomber. Still in his batning trunks in court Thursday, he got an old suit police keep around for such occasions.

Steel Wage Negotiators Fail Again

50-38 Vote Rejects Effort To Ban More Aid To Yugoslavia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate rejected 50-38 Thursday night an effort to ban further aid to Communist Yugoslavia. It was a major victory for the Eisenhower administration in its battle over a 4½-billion-dollar foreign aid program.

The vote came after a hot debate over an amendment offered by Sen. Bridges of New Hampshire, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, to shut off economic and military aid to Yugoslavia after 90 days following enactment of the legislation.

The administration asked that further aid to Yugoslavia be left to President Eisenhower's discretion in the light of Marshal Tito's recent reapproachment with Soviet leaders, and a provision of this nature was written into the bill by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Party lines were crossed on the vote on Bridges' amendment to eliminate this discretionary authority.

The fight had slowed up action on the big foreign aid bill after the Senate had twice upheld the administration by turning down amendments designed to curb imports of t tiles and farm products.

How They Voted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here is how the following Midwestern senators voted Thursday when the Senate defeated 50 to 38 the Bridges amendment to the foreign aid bill to cut off aid to Yugoslavia:

Illinois—Douglas (D) for; Dirksen (R) against.

Indiana—Jenner (R), not voting but announced as for.

Wisconsin—McCarthy (R) for, Wiley (R), not voting but announced as for.

Investigate Lear Flight Into Russia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Embassy in Moscow is reported investigating the flight into Russia of William P. Lear, wealthy American plane equipment maker, in his small plane.

State Department officials made clear Thursday they were greatly surprised by Lear's flying visit in his five-passenger Cessna 310.

They said such a plane had been approved for export but with the understanding it was to be used in Switzerland by an official of Lear's company.

No export license would have been granted, they said, had they known the plane was to be flown into Russia, especially if it had electronic equipment of the kind now barred by the government for trade with the Soviets.

American Embassy officials are reported to have already filed one report on Lear's activities and are understood to be making a more detailed check which will be cabled the State Department.

Four Die, One Injured In Truck-Car Crash

CHICAGO (AP)—Two women and two boys died and another youth was critically injured Thursday in a truck-car collision at Rt. 68 and Barrington Rd., about two miles south of Barrington.

The dead were Mrs. Annie Jacobson, 23, of suburban Palatine; Mrs. Terry Roth, 34, of suburban Robinson Woods, and Mrs. Roth's son, Kenneth, 9, and infant daughter, Gail Ann, 6 months. In Sherman hospital, Elgin, was another son of Mrs. Roth, Dennis, 5. His condition was listed as critical.

The truck, loaded with scrap metal, was operated by Leonard Tyson, 38, of Chicago.

Tyson told police that he was going west on Barrington Road. The car, following a truck eastbound on Rt. 68, tried to pass but collided with his truck.

Unearth Skeleton Believed To Be 5600 Years Old

CHESTER, Ill. (AP)—State archaeologists excavating in Randolph County have unearthed a human skeleton they believe to be the oldest ever discovered in the U.S.

John S. Tarr, assistant field director of the group, said the specimen is believed to be the skeleton of a woman, dead some 5,600 years.

The site of the discovery is near Modoc, about 15 miles northwest of Chester. Nearby Modoc Rock Shelter has been recognized for several years as the site of the oldest Indian campsite in the Midwest.

Tarr said the skeleton was found earlier this week at a depth of about nine feet.

The skeleton is complete, Tarr said, although several of its appendages have become separated.

A party of 14 archaeologists and students under the direction of Melvin Fowler, curator of anthropology at the Illinois State Museum, has been excavating at the site for almost two weeks.

Archaeologists say tests of campfire charcoal found some 25 feet underground prove that human life existed in the Modoc area almost 11,000 years ago.

NEW YORK (AP)—The fashionable 5th avenue town house of the late Serge Rubinstein is for sale. It was in the 27-room mansion that the financier was mysteriously strangled Jan. 27, 1955. The house is assessed for tax purposes at $160,000.

Ag Department Swamped With Ideas For New Lab

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A U.S. Department of Agriculture committee was swamped with more brochures, road maps, resolutions and talk Thursday in the battle of 68 cities for a proposed 18-million-dollar animal disease research laboratory.

Through it all, Chairman Don Collins kept the delegations rolling through the committee room by holding each to 30 minutes to extoll the advantages of their particular communities as a possible site.

Collins, a Kit Carson, Colo., rancher and president of the American National Cattlemen's Assn., said he hoped to wind up the hearing Saturday night, and probably Sunday head with his committee of 10 for a personal inspection of the 10 proposed sites appearing to be the most favorable.

Nearly half of the delegations already have appeared before the committee. Most of them are representatives of land grant colleges and of chambers of commerce.

The laboratory, which will provide facilities for simultaneous research on 25 different animal diseases, is to replace a 50-year-old obsolete facility at Washington, D. C., and other operations at Auburn, Ala., and Denver, Colo.

Three possible sites, each 400 acres in size, were advanced by a delegation from Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, Fla., headed by Dr. R. S. Sugg, dean of the School of Veterinary Medicine.

Delegations appearing Thursday, included those from Kansas State College, Purdue University and the University of Nebraska.

Begin Banking Fires

NEW YORK (AP) — Steel wage negotiators failed again Thursday to reach a contract agreement that would avert a 650,000-man strike Saturday midnight.

"We are no closer to an agreement than we were May 28," said David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union. That was the date contract talks began in Pittsburgh before being transferred here three weeks ago.

McDonald, talking with newsmen after a three-hour bargaining session with company executives, was asked to describe the outlook in a word.

"I am never pessimistic," he said, "but believe me I am realistic."

As McDonald spoke, just 54 hours before the strike deadline, the nation's steel mills already were banking their fires.

The banking will cost an estimated 65 million dollars in lost production even if a last-minute contract agreement is reached.

Shortly before Thursday's contract talks broke up, Secretary of Labor Mitchell ruled out any hope the government might step into the picture.

McDonald blamed the companies for the stalemate and said they had shown no inclination to yield.

"The next move is up to the companies," he added.

McDonald said the union had no plans to call federal mediators into the negotiations.

Mitchell had said earlier in Washington that the Federal Mediation Service stands ready to step in and help with the negotiations, but only if requested.

"No change, no change," said John A. Stephens, U.S. Steel vice president and chief industry negotiator, when asked about prospects of a settlement.

Those were among numerous reports, resolutions and memorials to be considered before adjournment Saturday.

The Committee on Constitutional Matters recommended adoption of a report saying it should be the practice of congregations not to admit members of "un-Christian" lodges to Communion or communicant membership.

Editorial Comment

Foreign Aid Bill

It seems fair to conclude that President Eisenhower would not have thrown his weight and prestige into the congressional fight for the full $4.9 billion foreign aid proposal if he did not believe the program vital to America's welfare.

Yet the administration and its leaders in Congress failed to win the day in the House and evidently have slim chance to score in the Senate. At most the Senate might restore $500 million of the $1.1 billion chopped out by the House. But some of this would undoubtedly be lost in reconciling differences between House and Senate versions.

On top of this is the fact that the bills now under study are "authorizations" for foreign aid expenditure; the actual appropriations are voted in separate measures later. And the history of foreign aid legislation is that the appropriations are normally smaller than the authorizations.

Why has Mr. Eisenhower lost this battle so far?

The reasons are probably several. In an election year, "economy" has a great sound to lawmakers who must face the voters in the fall. Since foreigners don't vote in our elections, it is always most convenient to save money on foreign programs.

Secondly, the always-potent congressional resistance to foreign aid as such has increased as the program has stretched out through the years. After nearly a decade, the cumulative effect of this opposition is substantial.

And, thirdly, in this particular year the forces favoring the $4.9 billion total appear not to have answered effectively the opposition argument that the aid program can draw upon some $6 billion in unexpended funds previously appropriated.

The proponents declare these funds already are committed for earlier aid projects which simply have been slow in developing, that to shunt money from them to other aid uses would be to cripple the program severely. Yet this defense has not registered heavily with the lawmakers.

A great many seem thoroughly convinced that aid officials have plenty to spend no matter what Congress does this time. Senator Russell of Georgia even talks of diverting some of the previously voted money to actual U.S. military use. He wants to cut the aid bill deeper than did the House.

It would be hard enough in a campaign year to put a full foreign aid program over in the best of circumstances. Unless the administration can somehow sell a majority of U.S. senators the idea that the proposed cuts really would be damaging, they are not likely to be restored. That $6 billion hold-over looks to Congress like a pretty fat cushion.

Salk Vaccine Proves Itself

Last year's furore over "bungling" in the Salk vaccine program is today largely forgotten. We have cheering news from its discoverer, Dr. Jonas Salk, that properly handled it may in time be 100 per cent effective against polio.

Furthermore, the U. S. Surgeon General, Dr. Leonard Scheele, recently told a convention of the American Medical Association that there were 75 per cent fewer cases of polio among vaccinated children than among those who received no Salk shots. The product now is believed to be considerably more efficient than when the first injections were given to these youngsters.

We still have tough obstacles to surmount in heart disease, cancer and mental ills. But the dread scourge of children, polio, seems surely on the way out as a factor in the nation's health.

Thinking It Over—

By Robert L. Diffenbacher, D.D.
Written for NEA Service

"The little toy dog is covered with dust, but sturdy and staunch he stands," was written many years ago by Eugene Field. As we read the poem we feel a certain nostalgia for our childhood or for the childhood of our children.

There was something very satisfying in those bygone days when important things happened in ways which appear insignificant today. At least the enchantment is not present in adulthood.

Someday in the future a new generation will see the little toy spaceman covered with dust, and will feel a nostalgia for the childhood days of 1956. They will look back on significant incidents in their childhood, and in the early years of children who have grown into adulthood.

What are we doing today for the little tots of America so that they may remember worthwhile incidents as important?

Will they remember sitting on our knees while we told them the story of Christmas?

Will they remember the family prayers which influenced their future lives?

Will they yearn for the days when the family went as a unit to church and Sunday School?

Remember that the things we do today with our children are the things they will remember as the important foundation experiences of their adulthood. You are today molding the future of America and her people of tomorrow.

A 6-pound chuck steak will give you a 2½-pound fillet and about 3 pounds of hamburger. This will serve 6 adults and 6 children nicely—even very hungry ones.

Steak Sandwiches (Make 12 servings)

One quarter cup salad oil, ¼ cup wine vinegar or red wine, ¼ teaspoon oregano, ¼ teaspoon thyme, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 medium onion, sliced, 1 clove garlic, minced, 2½ pounds chuck fillet, 2 inches thick, 2 teaspoons kitchen bouquet, 12 frankfurter rolls.

Combine all ingredients except the kitchen bouquet and cover the steak with the marinade. Allow to stand overnight or at room temperature for several hours. Drain. Brush on both sides with kitchen bouquet. Broil over moderate heat for 15 minutes on each side. Remove to platter or board and slice diagonally into thin slices, about ¼-inch thick. Serve over toasted frankfurter buns.

Hamburgers (Makes 12 hamburgers)

Three pounds ground chuck, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon rosemary, 12 hamburger rolls.

Combine meat and seasonings and form into patties. Broil hamburgers over moderate heat for 8 minutes. Turn and broil for 8 minutes longer. Serve on toasted picnic buns.

TOMORROW'S COOK - OUT DINNER: Steak sandwiches and hamburgers, corn-on-cob, buttered rolls, dill pickles, whole tomatoes, fresh fruit, chocolate brownies, coffee, iced tea, milk.

How High Is Your Rating As a Husband-Wife Team?

A husband and wife ought to give a little thought to the impression they make as a couple.

The other day I heard a woman say, "Both Edith and Jim Brown, taken singly, are pleasant to have around. I like them both and yet when they are together they argue and wrangle and belittle each other until everyone is uncomfortable.

"It has become such a habit with them I don't think they even realize what they are doing. The real pity is, I'm sure they love each other. Yet as a couple they are boring and irritating to have around."

Have you ever wondered if you and your husband make an attractive couple?

You undoubtedly do if you treat each other as courteously as you treat others.

If each of you listens appreciatively when the other talks, without butting in to offer corrections.

If you laugh at each other's stories or attempts at humor.

If you present the best possible picture of your home life—instead of telling all the dreary details of things that go wrong.

DON'T WRANGLE IN PUBLIC

If you never bicker or argue or make pointed remarks at each other when you have an audience.

If you obviously like and admire each other and don't care who knows it.

If you are both adept at bringing out the best in each other, and occasionally give each other a chance to shine in the spotlight.

If neither of you tries to boss the other, or neither does all the talking for the two of you.

If that sounds like a large order, remember this: You are both probably equally considerate of others.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)— Gen. Curtis LeMay, the stocky, cigar-chewing boss of the Strategic Air Command whose long-range bombers would have the job of hitting Russia at once if war came, has done a super-selling job.

He urged the senators to vote more money for the Air Force—mostly for his command—than President Eisenhower, Secretary of Defense Wilson and Secretary of the Air Force Quarles said was necessary.

The senators accepted the judgment of LeMay and voted the money Tuesday.

When Secretary of State Dulles boasts that the Russians are dissuaded from war by this country's "deterrent power," he's talking of the ability of LeMay's long-range bombers to reach Russia and retaliate with nuclear bombs.

LeMay's command — called SAC—is this country's first line of defense. It would also be the first line of defense for American allies in Europe and elsewhere.

The 49-year-old LeMay —carefully prepared with facts, figures and forebodings—alarmed the senators when he testified before them this year on the needs of SAC if this country hoped to keep abreast of the Russians.

If war started Thursday, he said, this country would win it. But he said by 1959—the way things are going now—the Soviets would have the superior strategic air force, meaning long-range bombers capable of hitting this country.

During the next three years, he said, the Soviets will have "twice as many" heavy bombers as the United States. This got a quick reaction. Sen. Jackson (D-Wash) called at once for "several billions" more in Air Force funds.

This was right down LeMay's alley. He asked the Senate for four billion dollars more than the Eisenhower administration requested. The Senate didn't buy LeMay's full figures but yesterday voted the Air Force nearly an extra billion.

The bulk of this money—to be spread over several years and to assure production—is intended for making the B52, this country's long-range jet bomber, which costs about eight million dollars apiece.

The current rate of B52 production is six a month. Before LeMay was through testifying the Pentagon said this rate would be increased. And, before the Senate voted Tuesday, the Air Force raised from 500 to 600 its goal of B52s by 1959.

Eisenhower had asked Congress for about 15½ billion dollars for the Air Force. The House voted just under that figure. The Senate vote boosted it to 16½ billion. About five billion of Eisenhower's 15½ billion was intended for LeMay's strategic command next year.

The extra billion voted by the Senate will not stand unless the House also agrees to it. If not, there will have to be a compromise. But even if both House and Senate agree, the Air Force may not get to use that extra billion. Eisenhower may decline to use it, just as President Truman once refused to spend more Air Force money than he thought it needed in his day, even though Congress voted it.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad (AP)— You don't have to be able to write love letters to court a girl in old Trinidad.

You tell her with music. And you don't even need to be a musician yourself. You simply fork over a little ready cash to the singer and he creates a quick ballad extolling in song the charms of the girl you're after.

A movie company here now making a film with Rita Hayworth recently had her immortalized in this manner. Total cost — $100.

Calypso songs originally were improvised satires on current events sung to an African rhythm at the annual pre-Lenten carnival.

Today, however, the calypso industry is not much more spontaneous than the art of canning tuna fish. It gets more like Tin Pan Alley every year. The ad libs aren't vocal. They're written out ahead of time.

"The calypsos are becoming Charles S. Espinet, assistant editor of the Trinidad Guardian and an authority on island folk music. "But at parties, where the singers know the guests, they still often improvise."

Calypso singers are a breed apart. Most of them have little education, little formal knowledge of music. They usually come from the other side of the tracks, or, as the saying here goes "behind the bridge."

But they have a keen sense of rhythm and a quick eye for the absurdities and pretensions of the human race.

They all go by colorful or high-sounding names—such as "Lord Melody," "Lord Creator," "King Radio," "Cowboy Jones," "Lord Invader," "Attila the Hun," and "The Mighty Sparrow."

Calypso singers — there are about 100—average $1,200 a year income.

Many of the singers complain that visitors have stolen and exploited their tunes without paying them any royalties.

A gentleman named Vital Angel has just started a music publishing firm here with the hope of stamping out tune robbing by foreigners.

"Some calypsos are being played all over the United States," he said, "while the calypsonians here who originated them do not get enough money to buy a set of teeth."

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The much maligned rock and roll [illegible] finds another booster, Burl Ives, the balladeer turned actor.

Big Burl is no small potatoes as a musical observer. More than anyone else, he brought the American ballad back to immense popularity, and his knowledge of our country's music goes back hundreds of years. That's one of the reasons he likes R & R.

"There's nothing new about it," he explained as he reclined in his garden of Allah Villa. "Why, it's the same kind of music I was dancing to when I was in college in 1927. In later years, the stuff was put out under the title of 'race records.'

"I've got about 50 of the new rock and roll records and I play them all the time. A lot of people are knocking this Elvis Presley guy, why I think he's all right. Of course, I just know him from his records; I've never seen the bumps and grinds he does.

"I've got a theory about why rock and roll is so popular with the young kids. For years, the top vocalists have been making records with musical backgrounds that have gotten more and more refined. You listen to a Dinah Shore or a Bing Crosby and you hear an accompaniment that is darn near perfect.

"The human quality had gone out of the records, and therefore the young people lost identification with them. When rock and roll came along, it appealed to them because it wasn't perfect. The music was noisy and loud and often off-key, especially with the saxophones.

"The singers were also unpolished, and they often stood back from the microphone and shouted, instead of murmuring into it. And there was another thing about the records—usually they had a beat, and a good, solid one."

Democrats Concerned Over Their Record in Congress

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON— (NEA)— The question is whether the Democratic record in the present Congress is going to be help or handicap to the party in the coming November elections.

On adopting President Eisenhower's legislative proposals, the Democrat - controlled Congress obviously doesn't have a high batting average. But a number of reactionary Republicans who don't go along with the Eisenhower program can share responsibility for this lack of accomplishment.

Also, it has to be recognized that no people in the country have ears closer to the political ground than the members of Congress. In the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives you will probably find the best cross section or distillation of American public opinion in the country.

But on some issues, Democratic majorities now in Congress appear to have reversed the positions taken by their party in previous administrations.

FOREIGN AID PROGRAMS were begun in the Truman administration. Now the Democrats have taken the lead in cutting down the Eisenhower request for expansion.

Democrats have traditionally been the low tarrif party. Now they are blocking authorization of U.S. membership in Organization for Trade Cooperation to administer the reciprocal trade agreements program begun by Cordell Hull.

What will finally develop on military appropriations— passed by the House, now before the Senate—is not yet clear. In general the Democratic-controlled investigating committees have been critical of the Republicans for cutting down national defense too much.

On another group of measures the Democrats are maintaining their party's traditional position in opposition to the Eisenhower administration program.

PRESIDENTS EISENHOWER AND TRUMAN both tried to liberalize the McCarran-Walter immigration bill, which had Democratic sponsorship. Democrats are still blocking amendments.

On public housing and social security legislation — both of Democratic administration origin—Democratic majorities in Congress want to go further than Republicans.

In pushing through the first farm bill, which the President vetoed, Democratic leaders were for far higher price supports and farm benefits than the Republicans wanted. Both parties were following their traditional policies. The issue is which party's stand comes closest to what a majority of the farmers want.

On civil rights legislation, the line-up is much as it always has been, only with more pronounced prejudices. President Truman wanted broad civil rights reform. Both the Republican 80th Congress and succeeding Democratic Congress turned it down. Southern Democratic leadership blocked it then as now. The question is whether the Democrats gain or lose strength nationally by this attitude.

AS HAS BEEN POINTED OUT many times, this civil rights squabble has complicated and delayed federal aid to education. But is it smart politics for the Democrats in the House Rules Committee to let segregation block the much needed school construction legislation?

Similarly, the House Education and Labor Committee has bottled up President Eisenhower's proposals for half a dozen labor reform bills. This stand is alienating labor support to Democrats. The original Taft-Hartley law was passed by the Republican 80th Congress, though conservative Democrats lent strong support to its passage and to overriding Truman's veto.

President Truman was, however, able to use the 80th Congress as his principal whipping boy in the 1948 campaign. Whether President Eisenhower will be able to apply the same lash to the Democrat-controlled 84th Congress depends a great deal on what this session does in the next month.

The possibility that this Congress won't do enough or will do the wrong things politically is a real cause for worry among the more liberal Democrats of both North and South.

★ DR. JORDAN SAYS ★

Development, Eating Cause Needless Worries

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

J. writes that she is 15 years old and for some time has been worrying about the development of her breasts, one of which has developed more fully and faster than the other. Fortunately, J.'s mind can be put at rest. The maturing of various parts of the body often proceeds in an irregular manner and considerable change is likely after the age of 15. In all probability the appearance of the breasts will equalize, or nearly so, within the next few years.

E. M. is worried about her great-granddaughter who is not yet quite two years old. Mrs. M. writes that the child is intelligent but weighs only 24 pounds. What worries the great-grandmother is that the child is so active running back and forth and jumping in bed.

THIS SEEMS like a highly unnecessary worry. Most children when they first learn to walk and stand become quite excited about it and may overdo. One would expect this overactivity—if it really is too much—to right itself as time goes on.

A worry just the reverse of the foregoing comes from L. She has a friend whose three-year-old baby does not walk. She adds that the child's father being very proud of the youngster would hold the child up by the feet while he was between six months and a year old and make him balance himself. One day, after the youngster's first birthday, he buckled up and the father could never get him to do it again.

THIS MIGHT BE a more serious condition. One should remember that children do not all stand and walk at just the same age. But there does seem a possibility in this instance the child is retarded in some way or has been injured. In situations of this sort it may be difficult for the doctor at first to know definitely whether anything is wrong or if so, just exactly what it is. The child should be under observation so that if something is wrong it can be treated early.

Perhaps grandmothers worry more than mothers. Anyway, another writes that her grandson, five years old, seems to have an excessive amount of energy but never wants to eat. At each meal the youngster makes a scene and has to be coaxed, begged, and threatened to get anything inside him.

HOW MANY MILLIONS of children are, or have been, coaxed or threatened to improve their eating habits I do not know. It seems to be well established that a healthy child will not starve himself or herself for very long.

Perhaps the coaxing and threatening are unwise. At any rate, one of the best lectures I remember hearing in medical school was given by a pediatrician talking on the feeding of the "only" child. He said that the mother of seven simply would not have the time or energy to pamper the food desires of each one of th youngsters. Good food would be put in front of them and if they did not eat it would be taken away. He felt that the "only" child should be treated in the same way.

Interpreting The News

By concentrating their thoughts on whether the Communist disburbance over the downgrading of Stalin was prearranged, Western observers are themselves downgrading what may be a very important factor.

Secretary Dulles to the contrary, there is a growing stack of evidence that the criticism and questioning of Khrushchev has been guided and perhaps inspired by Kremlin agents. The critics, such as Togliatti of Italy, Thorez of France and Dennis of the United States, follow one another too patly, sometimes word for word.

There may be a tendency among Western observers to place too much emphasis on the whole business as a primarily international manifestation.

The Stalin system had failed within Russia in many ways, but had fastened itself tightly on the thinking of vast numbers of people. The new regime felt it had to be changed, and set about changing it in a number of ways. But there had to be an explanation, sooner or later, of the reason for change.

It is not true, despite the widely held impression abroad, that Khrushchev's "downgrading" speech last February was kept secret in Russia, although it was not published. The heirarchy moved step by careful step.

Finally, an incomplete transcript was allowed to reach the hands of the foreign power most likely to publish it.

Foreign party leaders began, by their criticism, to support the Khrushchev group's decision for changes. At the same time they are demanding explanations of why Stalin's associates permitted the excesses of the old regime.

Western observers jump to the conclusion that international communism has been weakened, adding to the soporific effect of the smile offensive.

Western Communist parties escape, or try to escape, the onus of strict allegiance to the Kremlin.

One thing to remember in trying to assess all these developments is there are many angles, enough to fill a book. There is no room in a column, or time at a news conference, to put them all in context, even if there were sufficient knowledge available to do so, and there is not.

Approves Flood Control Project At Shelbyville

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Public Works Committee has recommended authorization of a flood control reservoir on the Kaskaskia River at Shelbyville, Ill.

The committee Wednesday recommended that authorization for the project be given Army engineers.

The committee recommendation confirmed action taken last week by a subcommittee which made an initial recommendation for building of the reservoir.

Cost of the entire Kaskaskia River flood control project is estimated at $67,823,000. This includes the reservoir at Shelbyville as well as a reservoir at Carlyle Lake.

There has been no indication of any opposition to the project in either the House or the Senate.

If Congress authorizes the project in the omnibus bill, money for the work still must be appropriated. It is unlikely that the engineers will ask for any funds before the next year at the earliest.

The committee recommended authorization of five Illinois projects, in all, including the Shelbyville reservoir. The others are:

Navigation — Mississippi River at Alton, commercial harbor, $246,000; Alton small boat harbor, $100,300; Calumet-Sag, $9,884,000.

Flood control—Saline River and tributaries, $5,969,500.

Texas Firm Will Build Post Office In Rock Island

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Dallas, Tex., firm has been awarded a construction-finance contract to erect a post office and courthouse in Rock Island, Ill.

The Dallas company—Second Avenue and Nineteenth Street, Inc.,—submitted the lowest of six bids and will build and finance the structure with private money repayable by the government over a 25 year period.

The General Services Administration said Wednesday the contract calls for $1,674,500 for basic construction at four per cent interest. The building is scheduled for completion in about 14 months.

The Rock Island building is the first in a 376-million dollar project. The construction is planned with private capital with the government repaying investors, with interest, over 25 years.

Illinois Power Seeks To Operate Gas Plant Here

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Illinois Power Co. has filed a petition for authority to construct and operate a propane-air gas production plant in Jacksonville, the Illinois Commerce Commission said today.

The Illinois Power company of this city will start operation of its propane-air gas plant on East State street near the Wabash railroad subway as soon as authority is granted by the Illinois Commerce Commission.

The new plant will be used as a standby and will only be put into operation when necessary.

The propane-air gas will be the same as the natural gas furnished this area by the Panhandle Pipe Line company. The Jacksonville plant will be used only in case of emergency or when the contract load from the Panhandle company is reached.

MANDY, THE DUCK, TO JAIL

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—Can you have a duck jailed for disturbing the peace?

It happened to Mandy, the duck from Glen Providence Park, which wandered too far from home and quacked too loud and too long. And at night, too. A resident complained. The prowl car came and Mandy went to jail.

James Stokes, the park's caretaker who sprung Mandy from the clink the next morning, said:

"We've got a pond, good feed and conditions ideal for ducks. I can't understand Mandy."

Frowns May Be From Poor Hearing

Three New Aids Are Worn Invisibly

These three women all have something in common. They were previously among the three million Americans who suffered from poor hearing without doing anything about it. But all are now wearing hearing aids. A tiny receiver built into an earring (left) suits a dressy young lady. The slim hearing aid is in her coiffure. A receiver styled like a lapel pin (center) is for a woman who wears suits. The transistor amplifying unit, as light as a lipstick, is hidden. The lady who wears glasses anyway (right) picks an aid that can be built in as the bows of the glasses.

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Edito.

As they gradually find themselves losing their hearing ability, many women make a sad mistake. They decide that they'd rather miss part of the conversation than wear the trappings of a hearing aid.

What they don't realize is that the effort to catch the conversation produces a frown and an uncomfortable hunched-forward posture. They are far less beautiful this way than they would be if they took steps to hear well.

According to estimates, there are four million Americans who have poor hearing. But only one million of them are smart enough to wear hearing aids.

Many women who have the problem of poor hearing evidently don't realize that a hearing aid isn't what it used to be. It can be worn unnoticeably these days.

Three new models prove this fact.

Two are from a Minneapolis manufacturer. One, specifically designed for women, has the receiver in an earring.

The receiver is about the size of a dime and can be worn interchangeably in several earrings. The aid itself weighs an ounce and can be worn on a barrette that clips under the hair, a hat or a scarf.

The second model from this maker is for those women who normally wear glasses. This aid is incorporated into the bows of the glasses. Sets are designed in fashionable colors. Remarkably enough, the manufacturer reports that there are requests for this model, with clear glass lenses.

From a Chicago manufacturer comes a transistor hearing aid that weighs only as much as a lipstick. The small, oblong microphone can be worn on the lapel as a pin. The rest of the aid, connected by an extension cord, is inside the clothing. The maker points out that getting the camouflaged receiver outside the clothing reduces the interference from the rustle of clothing as one moves.

No hearing aid is cheap. But a woman who needs one should realize that she's getting her money's worth of beauty and good hearing. And modern hearing aids are a far cry from the ear trumpet, as these new models demonstrate.

SOUTH RISING AGAIN

HIBBING, Minn. (AP)—Municipal fathers got a big surprise when they found a homemade Confederate flag waving from the city hall flag staff.

The unknown Confederate sympathizer caused a lot of heads to be scratched until someone discovered it was a southland anniversary.

440 IS FOR GERNERTS

CASPER, Wyo. (AP)—The Wyoming state high school 440-yard dash record may be safe for a few years. Casper high school has run out of Gernerts.

In 1954, Jim Gernert set a new state record of 0:50.7 seconds. Last year his young brother, Hi, broke the record with a 0:50.6 clocking. Hi lowered the record to 0:49.5 seconds this season.

From an estimated 17,100,000 in 1936 the number of musical instruments owned by Americans has grown to 28,600,000.

THEFT FROM POLICE

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)— A television station reported to police that a .38 caliber revolver had been stolen from its studio.

Turned out the revolver had been borrowed from the police department, for use as a prop. "Who's going to pay for it?" was the comment of Chief A. E. Jansen.

Home Bureau Activities

The Sinclair unit of Home Bureau met recently with Mrs. Harold Cully. Roll call was answered by telling where to spend a vacation. Mrs. Lula Robinson presided at the meeting.

The major lesson was presented by the home adviser, Miss Hazel Graves, on Dress Fabrics bringing out designs suited to different people. All benefited from her interesting presentation.

The selected subject was given by Mrs. Mardell Swain and was on Music Appreciation. A recording of a Strauss number was enjoyed.

Guests present were Mrs. Furlong and two small daughters, Mrs. Emma Long, Mrs. McGee and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Dewey Petefish and Joanne and Mrs. Merle Swain, a former member of the unit.

"Greatest performing engine ever built in America!"

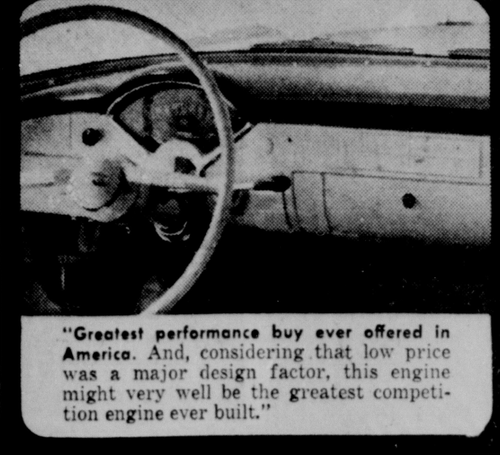

SAYS TOM McCAHILL, FAMOUS AUTOMOTIVE WRITER for MECHANIX ILLUSTRATED

"The hottest thing since Casey got locked in the steam bath. Here's an engine . . . that, due principally to its fantastic breathing properties, can wind up tighter than an East Laplander's mandolin."

"Ounce for ounce and cubic inch for cubic inch, this Chevrolet engine is the greatest performing engine ever built in America, bar none . . . available on any model they [Chevrolet] build . . ."

"Greatest performance buy ever offered in America. And, considering that low price was a major design factor, this engine might very well be the greatest competition engine ever built."

"Would run away from the best performing sedan built in Europe. This Chevrolet, costing about ten percent of the European car's price, could eat it alive even with an unwarmed-up engine."

"The hot one is even hotter," Tom agrees after testing the '56 Chevy with "the best engine in the U.S."

That's just part of the praise automotive expert Tom McCahill gave Chevrolet's record-breaking 225-h.p. V8 in a recent issue of Mechanix Illustrated. This engine is available as an extra-cost option in all models.

Chevy's own special brand of performance makes trips seem shorter, hills seem flatter—and saves you seconds in passing for greater safety. And the hot one's a beautiful thing to handle!

Come in and sample all the qualities that make driving safer and happier in a Chevrolet. When you stop by, we'll be happy to have you read Tom McCahill's complete article on the Chevrolet V8.

Ham, Chickens To Be Specials This Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Many corner grocers and big supermarkets this weekend offer hams and chickens at special prices, appealing to the housewife shopping for the Fourth of July holiday.

Both meats are hot weather favorites, since they can be served cold as well as hot and are popular for picnics and summer outings.

The decline in wholesale prices of pork and lamb in recent weeks is now reflected in lower retail prices for these two meats in many sections. Some areas also report lower beef prices.

The beef, pork and lamb wholesale market was generally firm this week and in some areas prices recovered almost as much as they had lost in the past few weeks. Unless there is renewed price weakness, an increase in retail prices can be expected.

Coffee - drinking became more expensive this week when a number of big grocery chains raised prices three to four cents a pound.

Vegetables from local farms in practically all sections of the country are bringing prices down. Cabbage, lettuce, radishes and green onions are generally outstanding buys.

Among good buys are beans, escarole, cucumbers and peas from local growers. Asparagus is also generally moderately priced, although the crop is about over in most sections and much that comes to market now is from storage. Carrots are also listed as a good buy by government produce experts. Potato prices remain relatively high.

LONG TERM DEAL

LEEPER, Mo. (AP)—Lee Dunn and Mat Phelps finally have closed their deal—but it took 60 years.

In 1896 Dunn, of Sabula, Mo., and Phelps, of Leeper, traded horses. And to complete the exchange Dunn agreed to pay Phelps $38 the next time he visited Leeper.

Recently, Dunn, now 86, got around to visiting Phelps, who is 84, and paid off.

FAMILY MEAL

ELY, Minn. (AP)—School teacher Jorma Kangas dipped his bait into Shagawa Lake just once and came up with enough fish for the family supper.

Kangas hooked a chain stringer containing five walleyes. Tony Strana, the unlucky fisherman who lost the catch, got his stringer back but Kangas kept the fish.

PAIN KILLER

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) A pain-killing drug, which appears to have stronger and longer lasting effects per gram than procaine (popularly known as novacaine) has been developed by a Michigan State University chemistry professor.

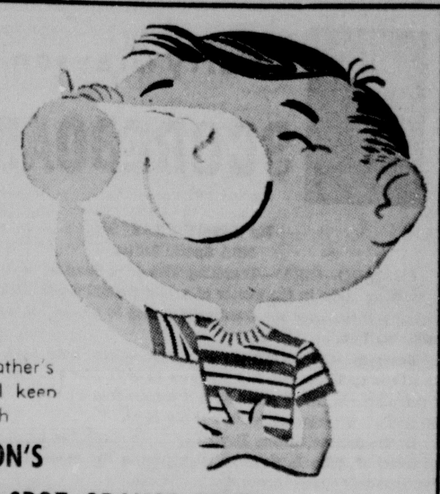

Dr. Robert D. Schuetz, associate professor of chemistry, developed the drug while investigating the organic chemistry of sulphur compounds.

OF MICE AND FIRES

YREKA, Calif. (AP)—Forest fire does not reduce rodent populations, a study or an 87,000-acre burn northwest of here shows. Lloyd Trevis, Jr., University of California zoologist, reported that traps set in fire-blackened areas and in green virgin-growth areas caught about the same number of mice and ground squirrels.

Ever wonder what last summer's clothes have been doing in that closet all winter? They look so funny. Well, actually, they haven't changed. But your eye, used to new fashions, has.

Harry Grayson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

CHICAGO—(NEA)—Traveling with Jack Dempsey is like being on a revolving stage in the center of a jam-packed arena with everybody knocking themselves out frantically trying to obtain his autograph or shake his hand.

Dempsey is a permanent celebrity. Others hold that distinction for a brief spell, but the Old Manassa Man Mauler has held the center of the platform for 37 years. It is a remarkable tribute to him that he still holds it 29 years after his last big fight.

In the Boston Strong Boy's day, they shook the hand that shook the hand of John L. Sullivan. Dempsey is the modern Sullivan, the first to outstrip him in world-wide popularity.

For a former prize fighter, Dempsey takes you to incongruous places. You find yourself in the offices of a grocery chain. You lunch with former Gov. Dwight Green. You visit DeVry Technical Institute, where Dempsey is a sort of unofficial college president and public relations man.

DeVry Tech has two-and-a-half acres of floor space in a four-story building on Chicago's northwest side. There are 1,700 full-time day students, 450 attend at night and 18,000 take home training. Last year, DTI received 4,123 job requests from 582 electronic employers. A Toronto branch is being opened in Septem[illegible].

• • •

Dempsey brings team spirit to a school without any sort of an athletic squad. The former heavyweight champion has been with the institution for six years.

"I can't over-stress Jack's inspirational value," says President Theodore J. Lafeber.

Dempsey talks to the incoming class, points out that with thousands of untrained men out of work in Detroit, companies were advertising for technicians.

Instructors tip Jack off to wavering lads whom they believe have a flair for instrumentation and control of electronic machines. Professor Dempsey asks the young man how he is coming along and is told that it is rough.

"How's the food?" asks Dempsey. It is excellent. "Did they find you a good place to live?" Entirely satisfactory. "Your shoes look all right," says Dempsey. "How are you fixed for clothes?" The young man has no complaints along that line.

• • •

Dempsey draws on his experience of lean early days to put the breath of ambition back into a budding television or business machine operator.

"Suppose you didn't have anything to eat, no place to sleep, holes in your shoes and pants?" he says. "Suppose you had to get up before six o'clock in the morning and do four miles of roadwork on an empty stomach? Suppose there were a half dozen real tough guys waiting to knock your head off in the gymnasium that afternoon?

"Why, sonny, you haven't got any troubles. Now, just get in there and apply yourself and leave here with a good job."

Jack Dempsey's personal magnetism has lit a fire under another youngster.

Gordon's Resignation Bring Tigers' Family Feud Into Open Again

By DAVE DILES

DETROIT (AP)— Coach Joe Gordon's abrupt resignation Thursday dragged the Detroit Tiger's family feud into the open again and an apologetic Tiger president, Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, Jr., shouldered "all the blame for this entire mess."

It was a complete about-face for the 44-year-old president, who for several days has publicly censured the club's field and front office personnel.

Reached by telephone in Lake Wales, Fla., Briggs said he "made a lot of foolish statements without thinking and I plan to apologize personally to all persons concerned."

He said there will be no further personnel changes, either in the front office or on the field, until the season is over or unless the club's new owners order them.

The Detroit Baseball Co., inherited by Briggs and his sisters in 1952 from their late father, is up for sale because of a trust fund arrangement. Official bidding will open next week.

The 41-year-old Gordon, a second baseman who spent 11 seasons in the major leagues—most of them with the New York Yankees—was in his first year as the Tigers' first base coach.

Briggs' criticisms started several days ago during the slump that has carried the Tigers through 11 games without a victory. He blamed Manager Bucky Harris and accused players of not hustling.

Then later, Briggs challenged the competence of General Manager Herold (Muddy) Ruel and coaches Gordon, Billy Hitchcock and Jack Tighe. All the coaches were infuriated. They said Briggs should have the "courage" to call them into his office and speak to them, rather than to reprimand them in the papers.

"I popped off," said Briggs. "I wouldn't want to hurt Bucky, Muddy or anyone else. But I've been going through a pretty rough period of time, with the ball club up for sale and everything and the club losing like it is. If I were up there (in Detroit) I would ask Gordon to stay on."

Informed of Briggs' statement, Gordon said:

"I appreciate it. It's very commendable of him. But I've made up my mind. I have decided to make a clean break and that's that."

Fairfield Off To Good Start In Insurance Open

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., and Ed (Porky) Oliver of Canton, Mass., Thursday fired five-under-par 66s to share the lead after the first round of the $20,000 Insurance City Open Golf Tournament at the Wethersfield Country Club.

Both Palmer and Oliver turned in identical cards of 34-32—66 over the 6,551-yard par 71 course.

Several players bunched in second place with 67s included Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., and Jackie Burke, Kiamesha Lake, N. Y.

Tommy Bolt of Houston, Tex., came in with a 69 as did Don Fairfield, Casey, Ill.

Althea Gibson Rallies To Win At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Kurt Nielsen, an erratic Dane with a record for wrecking Wimbledon seedings, lost Thursday in his first Wimbledon Tennis Championships as a seeded player.

The seventh-ranked Nielson lost out in the third round to Chilean Luis Ayala, 5-7, 6-4, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4.

In another key match on a cold, rainy day, Althea Gibson of New York, who is trying to become the first Negro to win a Wimbledon title, was on the edge of defeat before her opponent blew up and handed her the match. Miss Gibson defeated Ann Schilcock of Britain 4-6, 6-2, 6-1.

Otherwise the seeded players and the still-strong American delegation fared very well in the third round.

Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, the 1953 champion; Rhodes scholar Ham Richardson of Westfield, N. J., and unseeded Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., American champion in 1950, all won their matches handily.

The seeded women also did very well with Louise Brough, four-time Wimbledon winner, leading the way. Miss Brough seeded first, Mrs. Beverly Baker Fleitz of Long Beach, Calif., No. 2, and Shirley Fry of St. Petersburg, Fla., No. 5, all gained straight set victories.

NBA Lists Moore And Patterson As Top Contenders

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The quarterly ratings of the National Boxing Assn. released Thursday listed Archie Moore, Floyd Patterson and Bob Baker in 1-2-3 order as the leading candidates for Rocky Marciano's vacated heavyweight championship.

The NBA listings differed slightly from Ring Magazine's rankings released earlier this week. Ring put Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson in the third slot and Baker fourth.

Patterson suffered a bone fracture in his right hand in beating Jackson recently.

The NBA labeled Chuck Spieser of Lansing, Mich., as No. 1 contender for Moore's light heavyweight championship.

According to NBA, Bobby Boyd of Chicago is the top contender for Sugar Ray Robinson's middleweight title. NBA put former champions Carmen Basilio of Syracuse, and Tony DeMarco of Boston 1-2 behind champion Johnny Saxton of Brooklyn, N. Y., in the welterweight division.

Cincinnati Lands Five Players On All-Star Roster For Nationals

NEW YORK (AP)—Five members of the slugging Cincinnati Redlegs were voted to the National League team for the 23rd All-Star baseball game at Washington July 10 in the final fan vote tabulated Thursday.

Not a single holdover from the 1955 starting team made the grade in the National while seven of the eight starters (pitchers excluded) repeated in the American League.

The fan vote, recruited by newspapers, radio and television stations was compiled by the office of Commissioner Ford Frick. Although the voting ended last Saturday, final tabulation was not completed until Thursday.

The remainder of the 25-man squads, including all the pitchers, will be selected by the respective managers and announced Monday. Walter Alston, who managed Brooklyn to its first world series victory last fall, will boss the National. Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees again will lead the Americans.

Players selected by the fans must start and play at least three innings under the rules of the game.

Cincinnati jammed the National lineup with second baseman Johnny Temple, shortstop Roy McMillan, left fielder Frank Robinson, center fielder Gus Bell and catcher Ed Bailey.

Burgess' Three-Run Homer In 8th Gives Cincinnati 4-3 Win

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Catcher Smoky Burgess slammed a three-run homer in the eighth inning Thursday night to pace the Cincinnati Redlegs to a 4-3 victory and a clean sweep of a three-game series with the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Redlegs moved to within six percentage points of the idle league-leading Milwaukee Braves.

Burgess' four-bagger was his fifth of the season and the 100th for the heavy hitting Redlegs. The all-time major league record is 221 set by the New York Giants in 1947.

It was the third straight game in which Cincinnati came from behind in the eighth inning to defeat the Pirates. Wednesday night they scored nine runs in the eighth for a 10-2 win and Tuesday night they scored two for a 2-1 triumph.

For Pittsburgh it was their third straight loss and 12th setback in 13 decisions. They now are at the .500 mark.

Louise Suggs Takes 1st Round Lead In Open

DES MOINES (AP)—Louise Suggs swept over Wakonda's wooded hills in a 3-under-par 72 Thursday for the first round lead in the Women's Western Open Championship.

The 32-year-old professional from Sea Island, Ga., who cracked the women's course record by one stroke, used only 28 putts in her flawless performance.

A four-time winner of the Open, Louise was out in par 38 and back in 34 over the 6,475 yard layout.

Miss Suggs' performance sent her three strokes ahead of five other contenders, including defending champion Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill. Patty's 1-under-par 75 came on a 38-37.

Joining Patty in the second-place tie were professionals Jo Ann Prentice of Birmingham, Ala., Betty Hanson of Apple Valley, Calif., and amateurs Ruth Jessen, Seattle, Wash., and Jackie Yates of Honolulu.

Marlene Bauer Hagge, top money winner among the professionals, finished with a 76, as did her sister, Alice.

PIRATES BEAT PHILS SIX STRAIGHT

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP)—While the Pittsburgh Pirates were resting briefly in first place in the National League the figure experts may have lost sight of one important factor in their rise. The Pirates, generally picked for the league cellar, beat the Phillies in their first six meetings.

The Phillies have been a slow starting team the last two springs. However, the Phils hold a 6-2 lead over the Pirates in a game suspended by the Pennsylvania curfew law. It was halted Sunday, May 14 after 7½ innings and will be completed July 3.

The champion Brooklyn Dodgers have run into tough going with two clubs. While they were in fifth place they had lost all four meetings with Cincinnati and dropped their first two games to Milwaukee. However, they beat the Braves in the third meeting, 3-0, behind a stellar three-hit shutout by ex-Giant Sal Maglie.

Giants Whack 4 Home Runs To Beat Dodgers 6-3

NEW YORK (AP)—Foster Castleman, Jackie Brandt, Bill White and Daryl Spencer smacked home runs for "weak-hitting" New York Thursday night as the last-place Giants defeated Brooklyn's third-place Dodgers 6-3.

Castleman's and Brandt's homers were good for a 3-2 New York lead in the fifth inning. Then White unloaded and Spencer hit for the circuit and a pair of eighth-inning runs that sewed it up against reliefer Don Bessent.

Al Worthington and reliefer Marv Grissom shut off the Dodgers. Worthington gave up Junior Gilliam's home run in the fifth inning. Grissom was the winner, gaining his first 1956 decision in his 21st appearance.

Tigers Whip A's 4-0 To Snap Losing Streak

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Harvey Kuenn rammed out two home runs Thursday night as Detroit snapped its 10-game losing streak with a 4 to 0 victory over Kansas City in the first of a four-game series.

Veteran righthander Virgil Trucks gave up just 6 hits and only once was in serious trouble. That was in the seventh when Kansas City loaded the sacks on three singles, interrupted by a foul out. Trucks bore down on the next two batters and got out of the jam without harm.

Jack McMahon making his first start in the American League since the A's obtained him from the Pittsburgh Pirates, gave up only 6 hits, three of them to the redoubtable Kuenn, until the ninth when he lost his stuff. With one out in the final frame, the youngster was tapped for three straight singles and one run. Jack Crimian was sent in to relieve him.

Minner's Neck Injury May End Baseball Career

CHICAGO (AP) — Paul Minner, lefthanded pitcher for the Chicago Cubs, will be in a plaster cast for three or four months due to a neck fracture suffered in a bathtub fall June 18.

Whether the career of the 32-year-old Minner has ended as a result of his accident in New York was conjectural, but an X-ray examination Thursday disclosed Minner has a fracture of the second vertebra in his neck.

Minner was confined to New York's Midtown Hospital until Wednesday when he was flown to Chicago and Illinois Masonic Hospital.

Minner had a 2-5 mark this season.

He suffered a neck injury with Brooklyn in 1946 when, in pregame practice, he was chasing fly balls in the outfield and tried a diving catch. He landed on his neck, tearing muscles and ligaments. For two years, he couldn't straighten his neck and pitched with his head cocked against his shoulder.

Cincinnati relief hurler Hal Jeffcoat, while with the Chicago Cubs in 1955, walked 53 batters. Twelve were walked on purpose.

Pale Hose Leave For Important Five-Game Series With Cleveland

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP)—The hustling Chicago White Sox left Thursday for an important five-game invasion of Cleveland quite a black-and-blue lot—from being nicked by 36 pitched balls in less than half a season.

The Sox trail the first-place Yankees by 2½ games and lead the third-place Indians by 2½.

Outfielder Minnie Minoso and catcher Sherman Lollar have been plunked 13 and 10 times, respectively, and Manager Casey Stengel had some comment on both when his Yankees spent their recent "Lost Weekend" here.

"Both these fellows crowd the plate and the ball has got to go at them a lot," said Stengel. "But Minoso is quick, he should be able to get out of the way. Lollar, I can understand getting hit. He moves kinda slow.

"When I read about Minoso getting a fractured toe on his right foot, I know why right away. When we Yankee pitchers throw low and inside, he don't jump. He just lifts his left leg and, bang, he gets hit on the right foot.

"You know that Minoso is a pretty well-liked player around the league, so nobody is throwing at him intentionally."

Minnie suffered a hairline skull fracture last season on a pitch from Yankee Bob Grim, who later visited the hospital, apologized to Minoso and obviously was upset by the mishap.

Probably recalling that beaning, Sox outfielder Dave Philley rushed in anger at Grim on the mound last Saturday when a toss by the Yankee pitcher hit his shoulder and knocked off his cap. It was a no-decision bout.

Minoso now has led the Sox in the hit-by-pitched ball department five of his six seasons with the club, but he never has claimed anybody was dusting him purposely.

He's pretty much in the same boat as Lollar, who explains: "Every year I'm hit a lot. Three or four clubs like to crowd me with fast balls. If those pitches are a little off line, I get hit, that's all."

Nellie Fox, top Sox target last season with 17 HPBs, currently has been creased six times. Larry Doby and Fred Hatfield have been hit twice and Jim Rivera and Philley once. Ex-Soxer George Kell was plunked once before joining Baltimore.

Bergeron, Former Log-Rolling Champion, Drowns

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—The president of the National Roleo Assn., Lawrence Bergeron, 57, assistant fire chief at Cloquet, Minn., drowned Thursday in a championship log-rolling contest.

His body was taken from the Rock River, scene of the World Championship roleo, some 30 minutes after he slumped on his log in an "old timer" title match with defending champion Sam Harris, 56, of Kelso, Wash.

Bergeron, a men's world champion in 1929, slid into the water, took four strokes and then sank. It was believed he suffered a heart attack.

Only Wednesday night, Bergeron was re-elected president of the log-birlers' national group organized in 1926 to give formal status to the lumber camp sport of log-rolling.

Remainder of the afternoon program was canceled.

Smith, Janssen Enter Finals Of British Amateur

SUNNINGDALE, England (AP) — Favorite Margaret (Wiffi) Smith of St. Clair, Mich., and upset-minded Mary Patton Janssen of Charlottesville, Va., hammered their way into the final of the British Women's Amateur Golf Championship Thursday with relentless one-sided victories in the quarter and semi-finals.

Miss Smith, 19, defeated Polly Riley of Fort Wort, Tex., 5 and 4 in the semi-final.

Miss Janssen, who has tumbled favored opponents one after another, polished off Britain's 19-year-old Angela Ward, 6 and 5 in the other semi-final.

Miss Smith, rated as one of America's most promising players for the past three years, is heavily favored to win Friday's 36-hole final.

Upsets Mark Play In 59th National Golf Tournament

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The talent toll was terrific Thursday in the 59th National Intercollegiate Golf Championship as the 1955 champion and runner-up and the 1954 second-placer were erased in the second and third match play rounds.

Joe Campbell of Purdue saw his hopes of a second straight title blasted as he dropped a 3 and 2 decision in the second round to Don Sechrest of Oklahoma A&M. Sechrest failed in the role of giant-killer, however, as he bowed 2 and 1 to medalist Rex Baxter Jr., of Houston in the third round.

John Garrett of Rice, runner-up to Campbell a year ago, saw a three-up edge at the end of nine holes fade away before par-shooting Jack Parnell of Oklahoma A&M who took a one-up victory.

Cecil Calhoun of Louisiana State, runner-up in 1954, dropped a one-sided 7 and 6 verdict to Jerry Pittman of Southern Methodist over the Ohio State University 7,120-yard, par 72 layout.

Rick Jones of Ohio State staged one of the day's big comebacks to land in Friday's field of eight as he downed Bob Dunn Jr. of Florida State 4 and 3. The Buckeye ace, one down at the end of nine holes, shot three pars and two birdies to take the next five in a row.

When racing began at old Monmouth Park in Red Bank, N. J., in 1870, the events were run clockwise instead of counter clockwise as they are run today.

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Rails and utilities firmed at the close to bolster the bond market back to an even keel after earlier losses Thursday.

Rails and industrials were steady, utilities advanced a shade and investment quality issues eased.

U.S. Treasury obligations posted their second consecutive day's advance, after 10 days on the downside. Thursday's gains were roughly half of Wednesday's with firmness evident in long-range bonds.

Corporate volume dwindled to $2,440,000 par value on the Big Board from $3,020,000 Wednesday.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market weaved uncertainly Thursday as the near-term future of the steel industry hung in the balance.

But, on average, prices of leading stocks edged ahead, marking the week's third advance.

It was a narrow squeak, however, and the best that could be said was that the trend was irregularly higher.

Steels led the market slightly downward at the start in discouragement over failure to reach a compromise to avert a strike by Saturday. Then they improved well above their worst as the negotiators renewed their efforts over the conference table.

Generally, prices of the leaders moved from fractions to $1.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 20 cents to $183.10 with the industrials up 20 cents, the rails unchanged and the utilities up 10 cents.

Volume totaled 1,900,000 shares compared with 2,090,000 Wednesday.

In the American Stock Exchange prices were mixed with volume at 680,000 shares compared with 700,000 Wednesday.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Three former champions remained in the running for the quarterfinals the Illinois State Amateur Golf Championship.

Two headline quarterfinal matches Friday will pit Mike Stolarik of Waukegan, 1943 champion, against Bob Goalby of Belleville, a highly rated contender, in the upper bracket, and veteran Morgan Evans of Bloomington against Jim Frisina of Taylorville, three-time winner, in the lower bracket.

Another ex-champ, Norando Nannini of Highland Park, who won in 1949, also remained on contention. He will face Ed Sommerville of River Forest, surprise winner over John Hobart of Moline, who twice won the title.

The other quarterfinal match over the University of Illinois course will be between two comparative unknowns, Stan Pawlowski of Aurora and Lou Viskinar of Oglesby.

Goalby had a narrow squeak, 1 up, past Kip Norris of Galesburg. He won by a penalty, declaring at the 12th hole that Norris' club had touched the sand as he entered a trap. Norris protested after he match but officials said it was too late for a protest.

Six Killed When Freight Hits Car

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—A Pennsylvania Railroad freight struck a car at a grade crossing near here early today, grinding the car to bits and killing all six occupants of the car—three men and three women.

Conductor P. H. Conley of Richmond, Ind., said it looked as though the car didn't slow at all before the train engine smacked into it.

Butler County Coroner Garrett Boone identified the three men killed as James Nease, Franklin, Ohio; Jerry Stidham, 30, Wolf Coal, Ky., and Claude Raleigh, 38, of Miamisburgh, Ohio.

The coroner was unable to identify the women immediately. He said one had a tatoo "Leona" on her left arm.

50-38 Vote Rejects Effort To Ban More Aid To Yugoslavia

Sen. Thye (R-Minn), opposing the Yugoslav cutoff, said the issue is "whether we will stand behind President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles."

But Bridges denied that he and the senators supporting him "lack confidence in the President." He said the proposal of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to permit continued aid to Yugoslavia would be "passing the buck to the President."

The bill, as submitted by the committee, provides that no further assistance shall be provided to Yugoslavia after 90 days from the enactment of the legislation unless the President finds it is in the interest of national security and that Yugoslavia is independent of Soviet control.

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), a member of the committee, said Dulles had made a special plea for approval of this provision. He said the secretary warned the committee it was "a critical, vital decision" and that "great damage" could result if it were not accepted.

Army Research Chief Reports To Senate Air Power Probe

It literally gets into the bones of men, either through direct exposure to fall-out or by eating food or meat which has been contaminated by the element.

The Atomic Energy Commission estimates that in the March 1, 1954, test of a single hydrogen bomb, about 7,000 square miles downwind from the explosion was so contaminated that survival of any persons in such an area would be unlikely unless they could find shelter. The area was almost as large as New Jersey.

The 1954 explosion was in the Marshall Islands proving grounds in the Pacific.

Ike Makes First Gain In Weight Since Operation

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's doctors reported today he has started to gain weight for the first time since his operation.

This encouraging news came as the President, after making the first public appearance of his hospital stay, prepared to leave Walter Reed Army Hospital Saturday morning and continue recuperation at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

A medical bulletin said the President's weight this morning showed a gain of one pound and added:

"His condition continues to progress satisfactorily. His spirits and morale are high."

They certainly appeared high Wednesday night when he popped his head through the open window of his hospital room and waved a salute to a small crowd and the Army band, which had lured him into public view for the first time with a rendition of "Army Blue."

Eisenhower looked ruddy and happy Wednesday night when he made three quick trips to the ivy-rimmed window, waving and smiling broadly as the band played a concert on the grounds below. Mrs. Eisenhower twice was at his side.

The President obviously was aware—since hospital aides were at the window moments before—that he was stepping into range of news photographers, anxious to get their first pictures of him since he was hospitalized.

The concert was given across a road from the hospital building but the musicians charged up a hill and under the window as Eisenhower appeared in response to the strains of "Army Blue."

Polio-Stricken Woman Acquitted Of Murder Charge

EFFINGHAM, Ill. (AP)—A polio-stricken mother of two small children was acquitted of murder in the shotgun-slaying of her husband by a Circuit Court jury late Wednesday night.

The jury of nine men and three women deliberated 3 hours and 35 minutes before returning a verdict freeing Mrs. Naomi Larimer, who was accused of killing her husband with a single blast from a shotgun at the couple's Effingham home on May 13.

Mrs. Larimer, who is 33 and crippled, was in the courtroom when the verdict was delivered to Judge Ward P. Holt shortly before midnight.

Mrs. Larimer, her voice broken with sobs, testified Wednesday that her husband, Noble, who also was 33, had threatened to kill her and their two children as recently as two months ago. She testified he had beaten her regularly during their three years of marriage and once had broken her nose.

She testified that on the night before her husband's death he had taken the children to a tavern and threatened to beat her when she insisted he take them home.

She said when he returned early the next morning he started grappling with her and struck her several times. She testified she got his .20 gauge shotgun to defend herself and that when she pointed it at her husband he grabbed the end of the barrel.

"I had no idea what a shotgun would do," Mrs. Larimer sobbed.

Strike Closes St. Louis Brewery

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Anheuser-Busch Brewery, producer of seven million bottles and cans of beer daily, was closed by a strike early today. The plant employs 5,000 union members.

Company officials ordered all operations shut down after 100 members of Local 262 of the Laboratory Technicians Union joined picket lines set up by 266 members of the refrigerated cabinet division.

The two locals haven't agreed to new two-year contracts.

Other unions in the plant said they would honor the picket lines.

Quelled By Tanks And Troops

the uprising had spread to other Polish cities. How many died in the Poznan riot was not announced.

A West Berlin businessman back from the fair said Western visitors had stirred resentment with their good clothes and shiny cars, demonstrating a better life in the West.

As an example of how prices have soared in Poland, the German said a worker there had to pay a full month's wage for a pair of shoes.

This informant said the workers deliberately chose to stage their unrising at fair time in the hope Western visitors would carry reports of the strike to the Western world.

The Warsaw radio acknowledged that "certain public buildings" had been attacked but said "the authorities have now mastered the situation and restored order in the town."

Poznan, an industrial city of about 300,000 population, has had an International Fair since 1922. It was the German city of Posen before World War II. It is 175 miles west of Warsaw, 155 miles east of Berlin.

West German businessmen brought out the first stories of the uprising. Back from the fair, they said the workers were striking for bread, potatoes and fats and had set up roadblocks at strategic intersections in their first move.

Red flags and Communist slogans were torn down, one report said. Only automobiles carrying foreigners were allowed past the roadblocks, another said.

The independent Telegraf, a West Berlin newspaper, said that by midmorning thousands of residents had marched on the square at Poznan Castle and in other squares, chanting in unison "bread, bread."

The de-Stalinization program in Poland was followed by student ferment in that country, as well as in Czechoslovakia. But the general strike was Poland's first mass defiance of Red authority.

Begin Banking Fires

Other industry negotiators indicated the companies had no new proposals to place before the meeting.

There was no indication of any union disposition to backtrack in its opposition to management contract proposals.

The present two-year contract expires at midnight Saturday—the strike deadline.

Banking the furnaces, a process of cooling them gradually to avoid cracks and other damage, takes about three days. Reheating them, also a gradual process, takes even longer.

So, even if a contract agreement were reached in the next day or two, there would be a production loss.

The USW's 70-member Wage Policy Committee is scheduled to meet Friday afternoon to get a report from McDonald on the status of the bargaining.

This committee, composed of rank and file workers' representatives from the various steel-producing districts, has authority to approve or reject any agreement if one is reached by the negotiators.

The companies Wednesday retreated for the first time from their previous insistence on a five-year contract and proposed one for four years and four months. This proved unacceptable to the union, some of whose circles have expressed a willingness to settle for three years.

Present wages in the industry average $2.46 an hour. The union demands include a substantial increase, without giving a specific figure.

WORKER FOUND DEAD IN REFRIGERATED TRUCK COMPARTMENT

BALTIMORE (AP)—A short time after a refrigerated truck left a plant here for Wilmington, Del., employes noticed that a maintenance man was missing.

State police were asked to check the truck. It was intercepted just across the state line in Delaware.

Locked in the refrigerated compartment officers found Thomas Hock, 34—dead.

Police said he had made a terrific struggle to get out. He had torn a foot-wide hole through plywood sheathing and insulation of the door, but he had been unable to pierce the metal outer shell.

Dr. S. S. Bjornsen, Delaware state medical examiner, said Hock had died of asphyxiation from the carbon dioxide fumes produced by dry ice.

Missouri Synod Lutherans OK 1957-62 Budget

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The Missouri Synod Lutheran Convention here has recommended a six-year, $113,110,700 budget.

The long-range budget proposal passed unanimously late Wednesday in the form of a recommendation to the church's fiscal conference. It covers the years 1957 through 1962.

The conference which is expected to meet this summer in St. Louis is the body which actually will set up the budget.

The total, broken down to yearly allocations, represents an increase each year of some 10 per cent over the previous year. Synod membership has been growing at a 4 per cent rate annually.

The convention recommended the budget after the Rev. John Herrmann, St. Louis, reported the synod had added 635,000 new communicants in the past 10 years and has entered 12 additional countries since World War II.

Delegates also voted to petition executive and legislative branches of the government to "abolish the present compulsory attendance of its military personnel at divine services."

FBI MEN THE SLIP, BUT NOT FOR LONG

NEW YORK (AP) — A fugitive wanted in a cop shooting eluded FBI men Wednesday by jumping out the window of a crowded train, but he was caught moments later in a hotel lobby.

"FBI — stop the train," agents shouted as the wanted man hopped aboard a northbound subway leaving the IRT's 66th Street station.

The conductor quickly halted the train, but the fugitive, identified as Eugene Rambert, 25, scrambled out the window and fled into the tunnel.

Rambert, a Negro, was held in $20,000 bail as a federal fugitive from justice. A hearing was scheduled for July 11.

AWD Auxiliary Has Membership Increase

Mrs. Mary Zachary, Volunteer Service supervisor at the Jacksonville State Hospital, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting Tuesday night of the American War Dads and Auxiliary chapter 28 held at the American Legion Home.

Mrs. Zachary made her talk both interesting and inspiring concerning the volunteer services of the public toward the patients at the Jacksonville State Hospital. She commended the local Auxiliary for having been the forerunner in the new operating service organization program giving moral and material help to the patients. The original efforts of the local unit is now an extension of what the patriotic organizations are doing for the veterans.

The speaker stated the program started in 1951 and Illinois is recognized as the first state to offer this state-wide coordinated volunteer service program. She told the group it had proved most successful in benefiting the patient and there is still a great need for more volunteers.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Eula Bland. A talk was given by Mrs. Virginia Vasconcellos, national membership chairman. Three new members, Mrs. Genevieve Becker, Mrs. Violet Auwarter, Mrs. Evangeline Griffith and one re-instatement, Mrs. Letha Davis, were announced by Mrs. Gladys Fanning. There were also three renewals, Mrs. Harriett Pate, Mrs. Trilby Hicks and Mrs. Jane Patterson, turned in by Mrs. Vasconcellos. This record makes the Jacksonville chapter a goal chapter for the National Honor Roll showing a 25 percent increase over last year's membership.

It was reported during the meeting that a large box of home-made cookies had been sent to the service men stationed at the base in Alaska the unit has adopted.

Plans were completed for the state convention to be held July 21 and 22 at Danville. Delegates were named as follows, Mrs. W. F. Fanning, Mrs. Thomas Ruby, Mrs. Clyde Vasconcellos, Mrs. Roy Newbery, Mrs. Eula Bland, Mrs. Nina Abbott, Mrs. Nelle Wandell, Mrs. Sarah Scribner and Mrs. Etta Leigh. The alternates are Mrs. Roy DeFrates, Mrs. Delbert Looker, Mrs. Opal Bends and Mrs. Bernice Heimlich.

The delegates named from the War Dads chapter are Wallace Hembrough, W. F. Fanning, James Rice, Roy Newbery, William Graubner, Oliver McIlrath, Roy DeFrates and Clyde Vasconcellos. The alternates, E. B. Sturgeon, Everett Long and R. P. Curry.

Mrs. W. F. Fanning was appointed to represent the Auxiliary at the meeting of Our Saviour's Hospital Building Fund committee at the Legion Home.

The charter was draped in honor of a deceased member, Mrs. Laveda Crawford. Refreshments were served by Berniece Ruby and Sarah Scribner.

Department Head Visits Legion Auxiliary Unit

The department president, Eloise Mounts of Tuscola, was a visitor at the regular meeting Wednesday night of the Jacksonville unit of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Mounts has been attending the annual Girls State at MacMurray College. At the conclusion of the meeting she gave a very interesting and constructive talk.

During the meeting it was announced that several members had helped with the Girls State. Irene Vernor is the Girls State chairman. Mrs. Vernor and her committee served refreshments to the girls Sunday night.

A report was heard of the district meeting held recently at Virginia that was attended by Edith McMahan, Mary Wolke, Margaret Ferry, Addie Wolke, Trilby Skinner, Mildred Smith and Edna Daly.

Deedee Davis reported on the Junion Convention held in Springfield including that eight juniors attended from here.

The next meeting will be Girls State at which Doris Gustine will be a guest.

ASC Office Mails Notices Of Corn Base Acreage

Every Morgan county corn farmer should receive notice within the next few days of his soil bank corn base acreage for 1956. Notices are being mailed from the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, according to Chairman Charles R. Gibson.

A farmer's soil bank corn base acreage is about 18 percent above the allotment previously set for the farm and provides the basis of the farmer's participation in the 1956 acreage reserve program for corn.

To earn acreage reserve payments, the farmer places specified acres of his corn base in the acreage reserve and agrees not to harvest corn or any other crop from them. He can then earn payments at the rate of 92 cents per bushel based on the yield determined by the ASC county committee, provided the minimum requirement and other conditions are met.

The minimum amount of corn land that may be placed in reserve is the larger of 10 percent of the base acreage or 5 acres, or the allotment in case it is below 5 acres. The maximum acreage which may be placed in the corn reserve is half the corn base or 50 acres, whichever is larger, except that it may not exceed the soil bank corn base acreage.

Agreements for participation in the corn acreage reserve will be available for signature at the county ASC office and must be signed by July 20, Gibson said.

TWO SENTENCED TO ONE HOUR IN MARSHAL'S CUSTODY

CHICAGO (AP) — Two men were sentenced today to one hour in the custody of the U. S. marshal for the embezzlement in 1953 of $20,575 from the Merchandise National Bank. A third man was placed on probation for a year for his part in the scheme.

Judge Michael L. Igoe of U.S. District Court sentenced Joseph Esposito, 43, and Harold Rich, 55. Norbert E. Gogan, 33, was put on probation. All are from Chicago. They pleaded guilty.

The three men related that under their plan Esposito and Rich applied for loans of from $500 to $700 under false names. Hogan, who was a loan interviewer for the bank, accepted the applications for a fee of $20.

Hogan was given probation because he has already repaid the bank, Judge Igoe said.

Station Wagon Tempts Small Boy

ST. LOUIS (AP)—There was a toy station wagon in the window of a juvenile department store and a 5-year-old boy outside.

The lad, who "wanted to see how it would run," was tempted. He found an iron rod and smashed a hole in the window Wednesday night, squirmed through unharmed.

Police found the boy happily sitting in the station wagon inside the store but they couldn't get to him. The hole in the window was too small.

They called the manager, who opened the door. The boy was released to the custody of his parents.

American Leaves After 10 Years In Red China

HONG KONG (AP)—Don Kemp, a U. S. citizen about 34, arrived here today after more than 10 years on the Chinese mainland. He was one of the few Americans who remained voluntarily in China after the Communist conquest of 1949.

Kemp reached Hong Kong aboard a British ship from Tientsin. He told newsmen he was en route to see his mother in Evanston, Ill. Then he melted away into this British colony.

U. S. consular officials said he had not got in touch with them.

They added he must do so to get a passport to travel back to the United States.

In January 1951 Peiping radio listed Kemp among signers of a letter to American prisoners denouncing what it called "the American invasion of Korea."

Persons here who knew Kemp in China before the Communists took over said he had been teaching English at a school in Kansu Province in northwestern China. They said he was a former Marine who stayed on in China after World War II as a part-time correspondent for American magazines Time and Life.

Polio Cases Do Not Show Usual Seasonal Rise

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Public Health Service said today 180 new cases of polio were reported last week, exactly the same as the previous week.

Ordinarily the number of persons stricken rises steadily during the height of the polio season, from June until late August or September.

A spokesman, emphasizing the evidence indicates Salk polio vaccine is "extremely effective" among inoculated persons, said it is still too early to forecast the polio trend for the year among the entire population.

Among the 180 cases reported last week, 94 were paralytic. The total compared with 277 in the corresponding week of 1955 and a 1951-55 median of 419.

The service reported a total of 1,332 cases through the current disease year, which began about April 1, and 2,399 for the calendar year to June 23. Comparable figures for 1955 were 2,310 and 3,373. In 1952, when the sharp jump did not occur until July, there were 1,776 and 3,094.

Among the states, Texas reported the most cases, 37. That was four higher than the preceding week. California dropped one, to 36, while Louisiana declined from 22 to 15 and Florida from 11 to 8. Illinois went up one, to 10.

PENTAGON SLIDING AGAIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The huge Pentagon, headquarters of America's military might, is being shored up because it's on shaky ground.

It isn't the first time, said a spokesman for the General Services Administration. He said workmen are digging down and putting in concrete slabs to prevent slipping, as they have done on several occasions in the past.

The Pentagon is built on filled-in land which always has a tendency to slip and slide.

DEFENSE DEPT. RENEWS OPPOSITION TO PENDING BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department Thursday renewed its opposition to pending legislation which would make servicemen subject to jurisdiction of state game and fish laws when hunting on military reservations.

Army Col. Paul V. Tuttle, representing the department, told the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee that all branches of the service are under orders to cooperate with state authorities in such matters. But granting states jurisdiction in hunting and fishing, he said, could open the door to control by state officials in still other activities on the reservations.

BAT HUNT

BARTOW, Fla. (AP) — "Bat hunts" are a new sport in Bartow County because one of the flying mammals, which bit two persons, was found to have rabies.

Volunteers who can't provide their own weapons can obtain shotguns and shells from the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission to kill the bats. The bodies are sent to state laboratories for study.

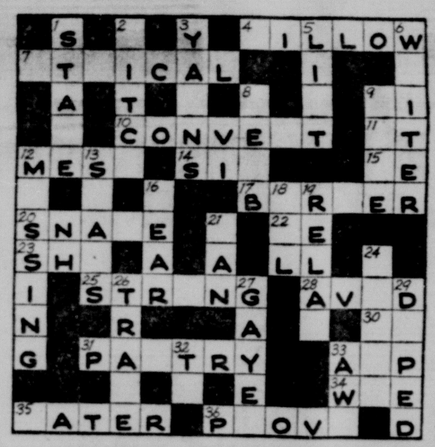

A mother and son at nearby Alturas were bitten by the rabid bat when they tried to put the little animal in a cage.

Our Growing Illinois Cities —

Freeport Takes Pride In Four New Public Schools Since 1949

(Editor's note: This is another in a series of articles on the cities of Illinois and how they are meeting the problems brought about by rapid growth since the end of World War II.)

By ELISABETH YAGER
Freeport Journal-Standard

What's new in Freeport since 1949?

Four new public schools, pride of the community, have been built costing an aggregate of 3½ million dollars. The two-million-dollar junior high school attracts school visitors from all over the country to this town of nearly 24,000.

The three new grade schools are also used as community centers. There's an equally attractive parochial grade school.

New housing developments have extended the city limits—annexation is now a requirement for city water and sewer services. The chamber of commerce has acquired the last 40-acre tract inside the city to make lots available for medium-priced homes.

There are two federal housing developments, with apartment houses providing 135 low-rent apartments.

To keep pace with the growth of the city and expansion of local industry, Freeport carried through a million-dollar rehabilitation of the city sewer system in 1951. The city-owned water plant has been rebuilt and expanded during the last year and the city is about to rebuild and expand its sewage treatment plant.

The municipal airport has been out in the hands of a citizens Airport Commission, who serve without pay. With state aid, the runways have been extended, a lighting system and beacon are being incalled and an airline is operating a new Freeport-to-Chicago passenger service.

The city bought in 1951 and is operating two off-street parking lots. A citizens Parking Commission, also unpaid, is planning an enlarged off-street parking program.

Freeport Park District built an outdoor swimming pool in 1949 and in 1953 added an eighth park to the park system. It is building the city's first municipal golf course, voters having approved the necessary tax hike by a 5 to 1 margin.

The new public 18-hole Park Hills Golf course will open this summer a half mile west of the city limits.

Both local hospitals have had successful building fund campaigns with ensuing expansion programs. The American Legion and Amvets have a new combined clubhouse. The YWCA has been redecorated and the YM is currently rennovating its interior after a successful fund drive.

There are three new church edifices in Freeport, two of them finished last year.

Freeport is an insurance center—five companies have their home offices here; two to others, division headquarters. Three have built handsome home office buildings in the last two years. A fourth is just staring construction of a new home office at the city limits.

Micro Switch division of Minneapolis - Honeywell, Fairbanks-Morse and Globe Mfg. Co. have enlarged their plants. W. T. Rawleigh Mfg. Co. has a new home office building. Structo Mfg. Co is adding another unit to it new factory, already one of the biggest toy plants in the world under one roof.

There are new buildings to house the electric power and telephone companies, and two new shopping centers at the edge of the city are under study.

World War II has released a surge of energy for civic activity. Freeport has changed a good deal since 1949 and with current planning it will change a lot more.

ASHLAND—Leo Reiser, of this city, manager of the Pleasant Plains Farmers Grain Co., has purchased three grain elevators in the Mason-Cass county area, which have been operated by the E. T. McFadden Grain Co. of Havana.

The elevator at Kilbourne, was bought from Ernest T. McFadden; one at Oakford from Mr. McFadden and Virgil Combs of Oakford, and one at Conover, a siding two miles north of Kilbourne, from Mr. McFadden and William I. Edwards, of Kilbourne.

Mr. McFadden also sold his interest in the elevator at Atterberry to Walter Dunham, who has been his partner there for several years.

The transfer to Mr. Reiser was effective a few days ago. No immediate changes in operating personnel will be made but William Edwards, manager of the Kilbourn elevator for 44 years, has announced plans for retirement.

Carrollton Fire District Hearing Set For July 13

CARROLLTON—A petition for the organization of a proposed Carrollton fire protection district with 78 signers has been filed in the office of county clerk Dwight Coonrod. The hearing on the petition before county Judge Jack Alfeld has been set for Friday, July 13, at 10 a.m.

If Judge Alfeld approves the petition, the matter will be taken to the voters of the area in a special election to be held in Carrollton, Eldred and Kane. The proposition would have to carry in both the city and rural areas involved to become a reality.

The district, if organized, will be governed by three trustees and the requirements of the Illinois Inspection Bureau will be met. Adequate fire fighting equipment and personnel will be located in Carrollton, Eldred and Kane. The fire fighting equipment will be specially designed to handle fires in rural areas.

The Greenfield fire protection district was organized several years ago and its equipment purchased without any bond issue. It is anticipated that the Carrollton district can also be equipped without a bond issue.

The size of the district meets the requirements of the Illinois Inspection Bureau. If the district is organized, the equipment obtained and the personnel trained, there will be a reduction in insurance rates within the district. It is anticipated that the tax for the new district will at no time exceed 12½ mills.

Business Outlook For Future Both Cautious, Hopeful

EDITOR'S NOTE:
How has business been the first six months of 1956? Sam Dawson, Associated Press business news analyst, who has been touring the nation to find out the situation first hand, reviews the state of business in two articles, of which this is the first.

Today's Business Mirror
By SAM DAWSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Business around the nation is taking a more cautious but still hopeful look today at the second half of the year.

A flash recession has rolled down on some industries, notably autos and farm machinery. But while they seek to regain their feet most of the rest of the economy has gone marching right along. The pace isn't as breakbeck as last year. And there have been some laggards, such as housing, home appliances and textiles.

Uncertainty in steel—strike or peace, price hikes, inventory buildups, the trend in customer demand—and uncertainty in politics keep businessmen closely watching the news tickers at mid year.

There are other parts of the economy, notably agriculture, where the problems are deep rooted. But even the farmers now hope that the worst is over, at least.

At mid year the popular prediction is for a quiet summer followed by a resurgent autumn—a sort of spring revival six months delayed.

There are sharp regional differences. Some places have been rocked by the blow of cutback production and snowballing layoffs. Michigan, where unemployment is serious, lives by the faith that burns eternal there, faith in the power of new auto models to heal all hurts.

Others live on the momentum of the onward and upward surge. California is one example. With the aircraft and electronics industries booming, good times are taken for granted.

Look at the strong spots instead of the soft ones and the nation's economy rarely seemed healthier. The total dollar value of the nation's output of good and services is running close to a record 400 billion dollars a year. With a few important exceptions these goods and services are moving into consumption without a bobble.

Personal income is running around 317 billion dollars a year (and people are spending around 260 billions of it promptly.) Business is putting out around 62 billion, 35 billion of it for new plant and equipment. Federal, state and local government spending comes to 77 billion. Each category is above the last year spending rate.

Retail trade, with the exception of the auto and farm equipment and to some extent the appliance dealers, is mostly higher than a year ago.

Home building is down in unit volume but total expenditures are as high or higher than last year because more expensive houses are being built. A boom in commercial and industrial building is bringing the grand total for construction close to 45 billion dollars for the year, to top last year's 43 billion.

There are some big question marks for business in the weeks just ahead but confidence in the long pull seems unshaken.

Jersey and corduroy are two fabrics that have traveled a far piece in a short time. This year, they come striped, printed and in plain (but gorgeous) colors. What more could a girl ask?

Mary E. Geers, Norman Kallal Wed Saturday

CARROLLTON — Miss Mary Elizabeth Geers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geers, Carrollton became the bride of Norman Paul Kallal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kallal of Jerseyville in a double ring ceremony performed Saturday at 9 a.m. by the Rev. Carl Schmidt in the local St. John's Catholic church.

Vases of white gladioli decorated the altar for the wedding. Soloists were Francis Geers of this city, uncle of the bride and Miss Arbadella Kallal of Jerseyville. The organist was Mrs. Lawrence Thien of this city.

Escorted by her father, the bride appeared in a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace, tulle and taffeta with which she wore a finger tip veil held by a headpiece of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Martha Geers was the maid of honor for her sister and she wore a ballerina length gown fashioned of blue lace designed along princess lines and worn over hoops. A headband of blue held in place a tiny veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of baby pink carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Holy Ghost hall in Jerseyville beginning at 2 p.m. Serving at the reception were Mrs. Frederick Kallal, Miss Arbadella Kallal, Jerseyville, Miss Donna McGuire and Miss Mary Costello, Carrollton.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to the Ozarks the couple will make their home on a farm near Patterson where Kallal is engaged in farming with his father.

Both are 1955 graduates from St. John's High School in this city and Mrs. Kallal has completed her freshman year at St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing in Alton.

LOCKED OUT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pipefitter Albert Bell was in no mood for questions from strangers when he was locked out and trying to get into his home at 1:30 a.m.

He gave a short answer to the inquirers—two policemen. A struggle ensued when the police wanted to know more. After four patrol cars answered the officers radio call for help, Bell was charged with assault and battery on a policeman, resisting arrest and disorderly conduct.

He finally got into his house through a window.

FRANKLIN SERGEANT TO RETURN FROM GERMANY IN JULY

BAD TOLZ, Germany—Sergeant First Class Ervin L. Eldridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Eldridge, Franklin, Ill., is scheduled to return to the U. S. in July after serving with the 10th Special Forces Group Airborne in Germany.

Sergeant Eldridge, a heavy weapons leader, has been overseas since November, 1953.

A veteran of World War II, he holds the Bronze Star medal. His wife, Doris, is with him in Germany.

The Paris, France, metropolitan area has 4,800,000 people.

The first synthetic dye, a mauve, was produced by William Henry Perkin in 1856.

Mix Fabrics for Greatest Comfort

BY GAILE DUGAS
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK —(NEA)— Nobody wants a wardrobe all in one fabric. We've learned to mix it up judiciously for maximum comfort, good looks and practicality.

Most of us have closets holding fashions in cotton, wool, silk, linen and the synthetics. Sometimes our suits or dresses are in a combination of two or more of these.

We lean heavily on the synthetics when we're buying lingerie or blouses. We've learned that lingerie really can be washed and dripdried, then worn without ironing.

We've learned that blouses in the synthetics are handy things to own, quickly rinsed out in the basin at night, touched up with an iron and put back into the closet for wear the next morning.

Here are two such blouses, designed for wear from spring into summer. Striped dacron blouse (left) has simple, tailored lines, one large pearl button and neatly cuffed sleeves.

Floral print (right) is dacron, too. It has wide collar and big, flat bow. Both blouses are by Dotti.

Summer's the time when you need more shoes than at any other time of year. It's hotter, for one thing, and streets are dustier, for another. Have them in open styles and change them often.

Hearty sandwiches: top buttered bread with canned baked beans and sprinkle with grated cheddar cheese. Criss-cross partially-cooked half-slices of bacon over the cheese and bake in a hot oven or broil.

Spread tomato paste over slices of rye bread and sprinkle with crushed basil and grated cheddar cheese. Broil until cheese is lightly browned and bubbly.

Lemon or orange snow — made with gelatin, sugar, water or fruit juice and egg whites — makes a pretty dessert when it is piled over rings of cantaloupe.

Add a little finely grated onion to a quarter cup of mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing, then beat a leftover egg white stiff and fold into the mayonnaise. Spread the topping over four servings of broiled fish and return to the broiler for a minute or two — just long enough to puff and brown the mayonnaise mixture.

Place packaged refrigerated ready-to-bake biscuits close together in a 9-inch pie plate. Sprinkle the tops of the biscuits with a mixture of brown sugar and soft butter. Bake in a hot oven until the tops of the biscuits are brown and bubbly. Serve at once.

Marilyn Monroe, Miller Given Blood Tests

ROXBURY, Conn. (AP) — Marilyn Monroe and Arthur Miller have been given blood tests — requirement in Connecticut for issuance of a marriage license.

The tests were made in hasty fashion Wednesday.

Miller's cousin Morton Miller rushed to the State Bureau of Laboratories with two vials containing the couple's blood and picked up the reports of the Wasserman tests two hours later.

A spokesman for the bureau said Morton telephoned late in the morning to ask if time could be saved by bringing the blood specimens to the bureau directly. He was told at least a couple of days time could be saved.

"I'll start now," the spokesman quoted him as saying.

Morton arrived at 2 p.m. and picked up the reports at 4 p.m. With instructions to return the blood test reports unopened to Miss Monroe's and Miller's physician, Morton returned to Roxbury.

Miller, a dramatist who has won the Pulitzer Prize for his play "Death of a Salesman," has declined to disclose the time and place of the wedding.

He has scheduled a news conference for noon Friday. He has said there definitely will not be a wedding this week.

After issuance of the marriage license, a couple must wait five days before they can wed. The waiting period can be waived by a probate court judge but only under emergency conditions.

Fabrics That Need No Ironing

NEW YORK —(NEA)— Young mothers, concerned with the many aspects of housekeeping and child-rearing in a servantless era, aren't much worried about gracious living.

Yet, most of them take pride in the way their families appear. They may use paper napkins, paper handkerchiefs, place mats and plastic dishes but they like the looks of frilly organdie and crisp pleats. Yet they can't expend the effort on keeping clothes pin-neat, as their own mothers used to do.

So they hunt out no-iron fabrics, children's clothes that will pop readily into the automatic washer and dry fast. But they don't want fabrics that look no-iron when they're buying dress-up clothes. They want the look of quality.

We show two designs that fill the order in every respect. No-iron nylon organdie dress (left) in blue-and-white checks will stay bouffant through many washings. Skirt is elasticized at back to assure snug fit.

Lightweight orlon-and-wool jersey ensemble (right) has sleeveless dress in white topped by navy-and-white braid-trimmed jacket. Skirt has permanent accordion pleats. Dress is piped in red and jacket has red lining.

Predicts Missile To Combat ICBM Ready In 5 Years

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army held out high hope today for countering the coming menace of the intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) armed with an H-bomb warhead.

It predicted such an antimissile system will be ready in four or five years.

The Senate subcommittee investigating U.S.-Russian air power released Wednesday night previously secret testimony by the Army's specialists in missiles and missile defense development.

Included was the statement of the chief of the air defense branch of the Army's missile division, Lt. Col. Woodrow B. Sigley, that the Army is "confident" it will have a counterweapon ready in time to "meet the described threat" of the ICBM in 1960 or 1961.

Censors deleted portions of the testimony which apparently dealt with details of Army progress toward producing an antimissile system. It was assumed, however, that the Army was describing its Niki II missile.

Unlike the Nike and Nike B missiles, which are designed for operating against manned, jet bombers and other conventional planes, the Nike II is intended to reach and destroy ballistic and guided missiles with supersonic speed at great height and at more than double the lateral range of the antiaircraft Nikes.

Nike II is being designed to climb at speeds of thousands of miles per hour to a height of as much as 50 miles. The mass destruction hydrogen rocket must be countered and destroyed far away and high above its intended target to make defense practical.

The Army also gave the committee a new timetable for development of an American intermediate range ballistic missiles (IRBM). Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin, chief of research and development, said, "We will put a ballistic missiles into business very soon."

Potato mounds are always popular. To make them beat an egg into two cups of seasoned mashed potatoes. Drop a couple of heaping tablespoons of the potato mixture onto a buttered baking sheet to form a mound, swirling top; repeat with rest of potatoes. Bake in a hot oven about 10 minutes, remove with a wide spatula and serve at once.

Puree a couple of packages of cooked frozen peas and season with butter, salt and pepper. Spoon the puree down the center of a platter; arrange breaded veal cutlet (cut in serving-size pieces) and broiled tomatoes around the peas. Nice for company.

Ever pan-broil frankfurters? To do so melt a tablespoon of butter or margarine in a medium-sized skillet until very hot but not brown; add the frankfurters and cook over low heat. Turn the franks gently so all sides will brown.

Buick SPECIAL 6-Passenger 4-Door Riviera

BEST SELLER THAT'S STRETCHING ITS LEAD

In this highly selective year, when people are picking and choosing with more care, it is of prime significance that Buick is forging ahead to a firmer position at the top sales level. Not only is Buick today outselling all other cars except two of the well-known smaller ones—but it also widening its lead over the fourth-place car. That's the tip-off to how much more pure automobile your dollars buy in Buick than elsewhere. Come in and see.

How about that?

How about this great new '56 Buick—in this highly selective year—winning a firmer position in the Top 3 of America's best-selling cars?

When folks are picking and choosing with more than normal care—and picking Buicks more and more—well, that tells us one significant fact:

People like what they find in this automobile—its great new performance and power and ride and styling—and they like the idea of so much more new automobile for the money.

How about you? Wouldn't you like to drive a car with the most modern transmission yet developed?

With the spectacular new breakaway of today's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow* where you whisk away in one smooth sweep with the gas pedal pressed just about one inch down?

And with the zooming safety-surge of this airplane-principled drive when you switch the pitch and go full-power-quick, like a pilot leaving the runway?

And wouldn't you like to drive a car with a big, new and mighty V8 engine, of 322-cubic-inch capacity, stroking up the highest horsepowers, Series for Series, in all Buick history?

A car with a buoyant new ride cushioned by wondrous new deep-oil shock absorbers?

A car with nimble new steering and handling—and the truest "sense of direction" yet?

If you'd like to try such a car—and look into the really great-buy prices that have Buick outselling all other cars in America except two of the well-known smaller ones—drop in and see us. This week would be fine.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

For Expectant Mother: Pretty Clothes

Plan Ahead On Fashion Budget

BY GAILE DUGAS

NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The expectant mothers in this country spend an impressive amount on maternity clothes each year — over 200 million dollars worth.

Just like all other women, expectant mothers are heard frequently to complain that they have nothing to wear. Only too often, they're quite right.

The expectant mother (particularly the girl who's having her first baby) usually decides she'll be practical about maternity clothes. She'll spend as little money as possible because she'll wear these clothes only a few months. Then she'll throw them out.

But in actuality, it doesn't work out that way.

She finds herself wearing a few cheap clothes for a total of about 180 days, or two seasons. She finds herself feeling lumpy and unattractive.

She wishes she had put her money into some good things that would take the necessary washing and cleaning. She wishes she'd bought enough clothes so that she isn't frequently stranded, literally with nothing to wear, while clothes are at the cleaners or in the laundry.

She buys cheap shoes on the theory she won't want to wear flat-heeled shoes forever. Then she finds they don't hold up under hard wear. She has to replace them with expensive shoes.

She learns a lot about maternity clothes but she learns it the hard, expensive way. It's the uncomfortable way, too.

Solution: plan your maternity clothing budget ahead. Decide what accessories (that you now own) will be useful to your during your pregnancy. Then put your money into the very best clothes you can afford. Remember that they take additional strain through added weight.

Be sure to include at least one really pretty dress. We show two such here. Hand-screened floral-printed organza top (left) with satin velvet trim is worn with silk-faced peau de soie skirt. Floral-printed cotton (right) is trimmed with washable nylon velvet. Both styles are by Lisa Kay.

Here's how to make hot mustard to accompany Chinese egg rolls. (The egg rolls come frozen.) Mix a half cup of dry mustard with three tablespoons of water until smooth. Any of the mustard left over may be put in a small tightly covered jar and refrigerated.

Dump almonds into the basket of your deep-fat fryer, having the fat heated to 365 degrees. Fry for a couple of minutes, then drain and sprinkle lightly with a seasoning salt. Serve as a first course with tomato juice for a buffet party.

Give Swiss steak a refreshing note. Cut seeded green peppers in eighths and boil about five minutes in water to cover; drain. Just before serving the beef and tomato sauce, stir in the blanched peppers. Tastes good, looks attractive!

Vary cooked rice by adding grated raw carrot, finely diced green celery or shredded spinach. After draining the hot rice, just mix in the vegetables along with a good dollop of butter or margarine.

Home Bureau Activities

ARENZVILLE — The Arenzville Unit of Home Bureau met June 21 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Clark with Mrs. L. J. Wessler as co-hostess. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Raymond Schnitker. The pledge to the flag was led by Mrs. Harold Kruse. The group sang "The Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by Mrs. Kruse. Seventeen members answered roll call by showing their wedding pictures and describing their dress.

During the business period various committees reported, namely: Mrs. Karl Franke and Mrs. George Morrison for 4-H; Mrs. L. J. Wessler on the county bake sale which was held recently; Mrs. Virgil Bartelheim on the recognition tea which was held June 19.

"Joint Tenancy" was the title of the major lesson which was presented by Mrs. Theodore Lovekamp and Mrs. Elmer Roegge.

During the recreation period the group joined in the singing of "Always." Mrs. George Morrison presented the minor lesson, "Quick Summer Desserts with Homemade Pie Mix." Refreshments of punch, chocolate dream bars, fruit filled tarts, nuts and mints were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Harold Nobis became a member of the unit. Guests were Mrs. Ray Taylor and Randy, Mrs. William Winkelman Jr. and children, Mrs. William Mattes and Linda Kay, Mrs. Farrell Hansmeier and Barbara Jo, Mrs. George Manker, Mrs. Kenneth Roegge, Burlene Taylor, Janet Kay Crawford, Kevin Schnitker and Jackie Manker.

ASHLAND

ASHLAND — Mrs. Bertha Varnum, Cass county home adviser, has resigned her duties to accept the position as home adviser in Hancock county.

She will leave the home economics office in Virginia on Oct. 1.

Her many friends here and in Cass county home bureau wish her good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Elder of Sullivan spent the weekend with their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Quinley and daughter Janet, who has been visiting here for two weeks, with her sister, Mrs. Quinley, returned with her parents.

Caryl Jean Hart has returned to her home from a week's visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Brockhouse, in Chapin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parsons of Waukegan spent several days with their respective parents, N. C. Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Woods and Shirley.

Bill Dodge, Jr., has purchased the recreation hall from John Walker. He expects to remodel it some, and make a CIPS Co. office out of it and it will be occupied by James R. Anderson, an employee of the CIPS Co.

Ashland's city sales tax for March amounted to $450.00, according to a report of the state department of revenue.

Those who have been selected on the regular panel of the grand jury for the October term of court are: E. Y. Johnson and Emmerson Thornley. Those on the supplemental panel are: Tim S. Doolin and Helen Brownback.

The Ashland Telephone Co., and the Ashland Volunteer Fire department have agreed on a new procedure on fire calls. When a fire is reported during the day, the telephones of six firemen will be rung by the operator. As the fire engine leaves the firehouse, the siren will be turned on by the fireman. Other firemen, when they hear the siren, will call the operator to find out where the fire is. The public is asked not to call the operator as this delays the firemen in calling. On fires at night, the operator will ring the telephones of all the firemen.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith of Chicago, and Ben Burdick, Jr., of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, were over the weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kline. Mr. Burdick is a nephew of Mrs. Kline.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christen, Freddie and Eileen, were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Long at New Berlin.

Mrs. Harry Curry of Girard is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Monroe and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wittlinger are both medical patients in the Memorial hsopital in Springfiled.

The Ashland Wonder Workers 4-H club met Monday night at the home of Maureen and Sue Ann Dorsett. A talk was given on "Cleanliness" by Mary Louise Lockard. Sandra Forman and Maureen Dorsett are going to 4-H camp.

Refreshments were served.

400-YEAR-OLD WALLS FALL

NEW DELHI (AP)—India's biggest tourist attraction, the 400-year-old Taj Mahal at Agra, is showing signs of age.

A portion of an outer courtyard wall collapsed recently. The wall, while a part of the general scheme of buildings at the Taj, is 300 yards from the main building, the mausoleum.

In this building, some plaster walls have small cracks and a few pieces of marble inlay are loose.

However, Indian archaeological officials at the Taj said the mausoleum is in no danger and that it is being kept under constant repair.

SUCCESSFUL SIGNS

PAYETTE, Idaho (AP) — The Payette Junior Chamber of Commerce got more than it bargained for when it put up a series of highway signs advertising tourists to bypass other towns in the area and drive through Payette.

A truck backed up to the signs one night, battered them to the ground, and drove away.

Said Dick Hanigan, chairman of the sign committee: "Either it was the work of vandals or the signs were more successful than we had hoped."

About 14 per cent of U. S. spending units (families and single people) had incomes of $4,000 to $5,000 a year in 1955.

The most popular costume you'll see this summer—at resorts and at home. The wearable blouse and gay skirt that does wonders in refreshing your wardrobe when the temperature rises. DIVIDE TO CONQUER?—Possible plan for laying the terror in Algeria is indicated on Newsmap, above. Damascus newspapers report that France and Britain have considered making the fertile coastal area (shown in black) a state for some 1,500,000 French colonists. A fully independent inland state would be set up for the estimated nine million-plus Algerians of the strife-torn land.

Tall Drifter

XXXIII

IN another hour they had crossed through the saddle and were dropping into the chalky basin. The horses had stopped sweating. They stretched out in a long line; black, brown and russet against a colorless expanse of sand waste. Their eyes crept with primal fascination toward dust devils that whipped in hot squalls across the desert. Frank had no way of measuring the heat but he estimated the thermometer would stand near 120. The prevalent wind had become a tormenting vacuum that blotted moisture out of bone and tissue.

Swede set the pace at a leisurely walk calculated to conserve the animals. Most of this time Jean had remained out of saddle, righting occasional stones as they overturned beneath their horses' hoofs. Frank focused his gaze on their backtrail and was unable to find a single sign of their passage through the pass. Now when Jean reeled against her bay he kicked loose his oxbows.

The heat of the earth came through the soles of his boots as he ran to Jean. He found her clutching her saddle, her eyes tightly closed.

He took her in his arms and had to break her hold on the saddle. She lifted her face to him, but without opening her eyes. She whispered, "Frank, do you think I've made a mistake in choosing the malpais? This isn't the worst—we aren't there yet."

"Think of cool shade. Think of the well at Rafter."

"There's a saying that a woman who starts with her man never quits the ride. I'd like to know, Frank. Do you think this is the real thing?"

"Yes," he said quietly. He lifted his canteen to her ordering her to drink. Already the canteen was frightfully light.

Once again they rode on in the wake of the herd. The water had gone down their parched throats with a torpid and rasping sensation. Around them rose an upflung mass of buttes and pinnacles, red, brown and yellow; an uncharted, sweltering lake bed lacking in vegetation, in life, in hope.

Jean pointed to a vague, bluish peak that had a distracting characteristic of vanishing behind the heat waves.

"Dad told me long ago I was to follow the peak if I lost my way on the malpais. That's Gobbler's Knob. Half way from the saddle are The Pits. Water in them, Frank. We've got to be that lucky! If not—" she shrugged. "In the long ago days Mojaves hid out at The Pits. I think they had some secret of tapping an underground stream. They were never afraid to ride onto the badlands. Perhaps, though, they sealed their springs so white men would never control the water in the pits."

They rode in silence. He knew Norring should be on their backtrail and his absence didn't check with what Frank expected. Norring was a man never content with his lot. He would move heaven and earth for additional power; and Milo Hackett was a man ruled by reckless temper. Only the circumstances of Lily's death and her funeral had sidetracked Norring from immediate chase.

• • •

DARKNESS came down long afterwards blotting a terrible world. They followed a pathway marked by bleached skulls, each ghostly markers to Vogel's trail blazing.

The moon rose steadily, heeled-over, and beneath its errie light the malpais was transformed into a nightmare of fantastic patterns. The closer knobs and pinnacles reared against the slate colored sky. From any of these peaks Emmett Cash could ambush them. Or Steve Norring.

Frank judged it was close to midnight before they lowered by abrupt and sometimes violent stages into a vast depression. The gurgle of water sent memories of other pools lashing at their minds. Their thirsty horses began bolting toward the north. A few minutes later they reached a low lying lake, black against its setting of basaltic rock. Frank lifted Jean from her saddle while his crewmen joined about them.

"We bed down here for an hour," he told them. "Alex, take your drink. Then backtrack to the rim and watch. Keep your eyes peeled."

They were worn low, but not too low. An hour would resuscitate both vitality and purpose. Right now Frank realized they should be pulling the herd back from the lake. He didn't want them to drink too heavily at first. He brushed past Hyman leaning against his grulla and was struck by how gaunted and drawn together the musician appeared. He gave him a closer survey, wondering if Hyman would be able to take much more. "What're you thinking, friend?"

Hyman's head shot up, the straight line of his mouth softening at the edges. "I don't know, Dante, I expect."

It brought a full blown grin to Frank's parched lips. "Time to change your tune. We've hit water!"

• • •

HE went down to the hard, rock beach of the lake and had his own fill lying full-out with his face in the water. The surface of the rock between his hands was worn so even he began to ponder how many centuries this place had been used as a watering hole, and by how many unnamed races.

He came to his feet shaking off this mood and began pushing the horses away, one by one.

Nothing is as devastating as a full-length view, front, back and side, in those department-store mirrors. But it's helpful, too, because it shows you how to correct figure and hair faults you didn't know you had.
